TCHATALJA BATTLE STILL IN PROGRESS

Bulgars and Turks Are Locked in Death Grapple All Along the Line.

ALLIES' PROGRESS RETARDED

Weather Conditions Have Much to Do With Failure of Operations—Russia Will Look Out for Americans at Capital.

London, Nov. 12.—There is no news tonight either from Sofia or Constantinople as to how the great battle at Tchatalja is going. The silence may imply that the Turks are making a better defense than had been expected. On the other hand, it is rumored that Turkey is asking Bulgaria to arrange an armistice.

In the other fields of war operations the progress of the allies is slow. The Servians and Greeks have not yet reached Monastir, where it is reported Ali Riza Pascha, the ex-Turkish Minister of War, has 50,000 troops prepared to offer a vigorous resistance.

The Montenegrins have suffered a set-back in their prolonged efforts to capture Scutari, largely owing to the defection of the Malissori tribes who demand guarantees of Albanian independence. The Greek advance in the direction of Janina also appears to be retarded. It is probable that weather conditions have much to do with the slow progress.

In the diplomatic field no fresh development is reported. Important conferences continue at Budapest, where the ex-premier of Roumania, P. P. Carp, arrived today with a letter from King Charles to Emperor Frances-Joseph.

In most of the European capitals a more hopeful feeling is displayed that peace would not be disturbed by the Austro-Servian difficulties.

Big Foreign Force at Capital.

Washington, Nov. 12.—A landing force of at least 2,000 men is now available from the international fleet in the harbor of Constantinople and could be instantly sent ashore, should a Moslem outbreak endanger the lives of foreigners in the Turkish capital. This force is considered by the State Department to be fully adequate to meet any emergency that might arise jeopardizing the safety of the nations represented by the score of vessels mobilized in the Ottoman harbor, and any anxiety previously felt for Americans is entirely relieved by assurances made to the department today that Russia will assume responsibility for the safety of all citizens of the United States.

There are at present in the harbor at Constantinople 11 warships: Two British, two Russian, two French, two Italian, two Austrian and one German, in addition to the representatives regularly maintained there by the different powers. Another German vessel, a Spanish and a Dutch vessel, as well as two Italian ships are expected to reach Constantinople tonight or tomorrow.

Advices to the State Department indicate that Constantinople remains entirely quiet and that precautionary measures already have been adopted by the Turkish government. The embassy at Constantinople has informed the department of the decision of the Ottoman government, to consider coal as contraband of war.

Communication with the cruisers Tennessee and Montana, which left Philadelphia today for Turkish waters, will be maintained during their voyage across the Atlantic by the new wireless station at Arlington, near here. The vessels will be kept informed constantly as to the situation in Turkey. This will be the first real test the Arlington station has made with vessels at sea, although messages have been exchanged with the battleship Utah off the Virginia Capes.

Russia officially informed the United States today that it will look out for the interests of the United States in Turkish waters and for United States citizens in Turkey. The information was conveyed to the State Department by the Russian embassy here immediately upon receipt of instructions from the foreign office at St. Petersburg.

T. R. REGAINS HIS LEAD.

Is Now 10 Votes Ahead of Wilson in California.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Theodore Roosevelt lost his plurality in California for about 30 minutes tonight and then regained it, as additional official returns came in. When again he appeared at the top of the column it was with 10 votes margin over Woodrow Wilson.

For half an hour, Wilson was credited with being 15 votes ahead. The difference was made in the official count of Sierra county, which gave Roosevelt 25 more votes than the unofficial count. The total vote at 10 o'clock stood Roosevelt 282,042; Wilson 282,032.

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Woodrow Wilson swung ahead of Theodore Roosevelt by 15 votes tonight, according to the telegraphed reports of the official count now being made.

Five precincts remain to be heard from. Of these four probably favor Wilson and one Roosevelt.

SHAPIRO SQUEALS ON GUNMEN

New York, Nov. 12.—William Shapiro, co-defendant of the four gunmen indicted as the actual slayers of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, today turned State's evidence.

Testifying at the gunmen's trial for murder, Shapiro identified the quartette—"Lefty Louie", "Gyp the Blood", "Whitey Lewis" and "Dago Frank" Cirofici—as his passengers in the "murder car" which he drove to the Hotel Metropole where Rosenthal met his fate. He saw them get out of the machine, he swore, heard the shots fired and declared when they came back to the machine they had revolvers in their hands.

"Gyp the Blood" Shapiro said, had placed a revolver to his head and ordered him to "hurry and drive away." He had heard "Dago Frank" say, he testified, that Police Lieut. Becker, since convicted of instigating the murder, had "fixed the cops."

Shapiro's appearance as a State witness was one of the results, according to District Attorney Whitman, of the death of "Big Jack" Zelig, leader of the gang of Eastside thugs to which the gunmen belonged.

Shapiro stated on the stand today that he had heretofore refused to identify the gunmen, through fear of being killed.

"Shapiro told me," explained Mr. Whitman after court adjourned, "that he was afraid if he testified against the gunmen, Jack Zelig would have him croaked. When Zelig was killed Shapiro got his nerve back and decided to tell the truth."

Mr. Whitman added that the indictment against Shapiro would in all probability be dismissed. The witness told his story in a low monotone, looking straight ahead and avoiding the angry glares of the four gunmen who sat bent forward in their seats all the time he was testifying.

Shapiro told of receiving a telephone message the night of the murder and of driving his car to Sharkey's saloon where he met Jack Rose, Sam Schepps and Harry Vallon. They got into his car, he said, and he drove to "Dago Frank's" place with them and there Frank got in. Thence, he said, he drove the party to "Bridgie" Webber's poker rooms, where his possengers got out. He drew his car up across the street and waited 20 minutes.

"Then Jack Rose came down and told me," Shapiro continued, "to drive around to Third street, 'Gyp', 'Whitey,' 'Lefty' and 'Dago Frank' got in and I drove to the Metropole."

The witness stopped his recital to identify the gunmen as his passengers. "While on the way to the Metropole," he resumed, "I heard 'Dago' Frank say, 'Everything is all right; no cops there; Becker said so.' I stopped my car near the Metropole and they all got out. They had revolvers and I heard four shots. Then they jumped back into the car and 'Gyp the Blood' put a gun to my head and said, 'Hurry up, you boob; drive away'."

Shapiro declared he "started up" and drove to Madison avenue, and thence to 125th street, where his passengers got out.

The witness denied on cross-examination that Sam Schepps or Harry Vallon were in his car when he drove away from the scene.

"I was afraid I would be killed," he said.

"Then," asked Mr. Wahle, "did you identify the men today also because you were afraid of being killed or in order to escape a trial for murder in the first degree?"

"No," replied Shapiro.

"Did you get any promise of immunity for testifying?" interposed Mr. Mr. Whitman.

"No sir."

"And the same statement you made today you made in full the day after you were arrested to your counsel?"

"Yes, sir, I testified today for the sake of my mother who begged me to tell the truth," replied the witness in a low voice.

Court was then adjourned until tomorrow, when Jack Rose is scheduled to take the stand as the first witness.

SPANISH PREMIER IS ASSASSINATED

Jose Canalejas Shot While on His Way to Ministry of the Interior.

ASSASSIN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Anarchist Named Manuel Pardinas Snuffs Out Life of Spain's Greatest Statesman—Consternation at Madrid.

Madrid, Nov. 12.—Jose Canalejas y Mendes the prime minister whom Spain has regarded as one of the greatest of statesmen, was shot and killed today by a young anarchist named Manuel Pardinas. The assassin attempted suicide and it was first thought that he was dead, but when he had been carried to the hospital he was found to be living.

No event since the throwing of the bomb at the carriage of King Alfonso on May 31st, 1906, while the King was returning from the church after his marriage, has caused such a general consternation and such public sympathy. So far as can be learned at present the assassination seems to be but an isolated crime, for which the exact motives remain obscure. The assassin, who was of Spanish birth, came recently from Buenos Ayres, by way of Paris. Practically nothing is known about him.

The King has appointed the foreign minister, Marquis Manuel Garcia Prieto as premier pro tempore, and the Liberal government which Senor Canalejos so conspicuously conducted for several years remains in power.

After a meeting of the cabinet tonight it was announced that Gen. Weyler, captain general of Catalonia and once commander in-chief of the Spanish forces in Cuba, or Count Romances, might be appointed permanent premier.

Canalejas was shot in the back three times as he was walking to the Ministry of the Interior in the Puerta Del Sol. He had stopped to glance into the window of a book shop.

This morning he went to the royal palace to submit several decrees to the King. He emerged smiling and happy. As an attendant opened the door leading to the street a strong gust of wind struck the Premier in the face, causing him to exclaim gayly: "Oh, what a wind. We are going to have a bad day."

About an hour later his unconscious prophecy was fulfilled. As he stopped for a moment at the shop window a man darted from a nearby doorway. He ran behind the Premier and fired four shots at close range. Three bullets, as it was afterwards found, took effect.

Canalejas sank to the sidewalk. A friend who was passing at the moment rushed up crying: "Don Jose! Don Jose!" This being the Premier's baptismal name.

The wounded man scarcely had strength to murmur: "The scoundrel has killed me." He then expired.

In the meantime his assailant turned the muzzle of the revolver on his own breast and fired again. A crowd quickly gathered, while the assassin was half dragged to the police station.

The premier was carried to a pharmacy and then to the Ministry of the Interior, where he was placed on a large marble table in the main salon. The blood flowing from a wound behind the right ear soon formed a spot on the floor.

The King was informed of the tragedy as he was leaving the palace to attend the chrysanthemum exhibition. He sprang into an automobile and motored swiftly without escort to the ministry. As he reached the Puerta Del Sol the crowd acclaimed him, crying: "Long live the brave King!"

Running up stairs, four steps at a time, the King entered the salon and bent silently over the body of his late minister. He was greatly affected as he recited the prayer for the dead and turned to the assembled ministers to learn the details of the crime.

Marquis Prieto announced the assassination in the Chamber of Deputies. In the course of a eulogy he said:

"He died between his two affections—his people and his books. The enemies of society will not triumph, for we are all united to defend society."

Marquis Prieto's words occasioned great applause, in which all except the Republicans joined.

The premier's body later was transported to the Chamber of Deputies, where the public was admitted to view it. The funeral probably will take place tomorrow, with all the honors accorded a general who died at his post of duty.

Throughout the evening thousands assembled in the streets and other thousands passed through the chamber to where the body was lying in state. All the diplomatic corps paid their tribute of respect.

When the wife of the premier entered she fell fainting over his body.

Jose Canalejas y Mendes, prime minister of Spain, who was assassinated today, was selected to form the Spanish cabinet in February, 1910. He was leader of the Monarchial Democraic party which came into power on the resignation of the Liberal cabinet, headed by Senor More y Prendergast.

Senor Canalejas, who belonged to a

NORTH AND SOUTH JOIN IN TRIBUTE

Meet at Arlington National Cemetery and Honor Confederate Dead.

CORNERSTONE LAID BY U. D. C.

Women of Dixie Hold Annual Convention—Welcomed by President Taft—First Business Session Held Today

Washington, November 12.—North and South met and clasped hands over the dead of the Confederacy in Arlington National Cemetery today, when the United Daughters of the Confederacy laid the cornerstone of a great monument to the Confederate dead.

After former Secretary of the Navy Hilary A. Herbert, had laid the cornerstone, and W. J. Bryan had pronounced a dedicatory oration, lauding the dissipation of sectionalism, the formal programme of the day was concluded. But Colonel Herbert, as master of ceremonies, surprised the throng of spectators by calling upon Corporal James Tanner, of the Grand Army of the Republic, for the final word from the North to the South.

Leaning heavily on his stick, Corporal Tanner raised his hands over the crowd, and pleaded for the ultimate elimination of sectional feeling.

"To you of the younger generation," turning to the Daughters of the Confederacy crowded about, "I appeal for the establishment of true community of feeling between the North and the South. You can form no conception of the community of feeling that exists between the old 'Johnny Reb,' and the old-time Yank."

From the little group of men in faded grey who swung their tattered stars and bars over the new-laid cornerstone a shrill "rebel yell" arose and from then on the talk of Corporal Tanner was punctuated with cheers. He was interrupted with a round af applause when he claimed Virginia as his "grave yard." "For," he explained, "I was mustered out of the Union army at the second Bull Run by Stonewall Jackson's artillery," and, resting his stick against the table before him, the old soldier waved his trembling hands at the Southern veterans below.

A great crowd of spectators covered the grave-studded lawn of the Confederate section of the cemetery about the site of the new monument. Hundreds of members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, wearing their red and white ribbons, surrounded the stand where sat the Confederate veterans and a group of aged women in sombre black, widows of Confederate dead. Colonel Herbert, Mr. Bryan and the officers of the United Daughters of the Confederacy were seated on the platform.

Colonel Herbert in his address rejoiced at the unification of the country, North and South and reviewed at length the causes and events of the Civil War.

"The present," he said, "is the era not only of honors to the dead, but of justice to the motives and patriotism of both Union and Confederate soldiers."

Mr. Bryan praised the work of the Daughters of the Confederacy in erecting the monument, and lauded the spir-

OUTLINES

Jose Canalejas, the Spanish premier, was shot dead yesterday while entering the Ministry of the Interior at Madrid to attend a cabinet meeting and his assailant after being arrested, killed himself.

Democratic statesmen arriving at Washington continue to discuss the make-up of Wilson's cabinet. It is generally agreed that all sections of the country will be favored, and Josephus Daniels is mentioned as a likely member from the South.

North and South joined yesterday in paying tribute to the Confederate dead at the laying of the cornerstone by the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Arlington. President Taft welcomed the Daughters at the annual convention, which began last night.

John Schrank plead guilty yesterday to attempt to murder Theodore Roosevelt and a commission of alienists was appointed to determine his mental condition.

William Shapiro, driver of the Rosenthal "murder car", turned State's evidence yesterday, identified the four indicted gunmen as his passengers and told of their connection with the murder.

President-elect Wilson will inaugurate the "open door" policy when he gets in the White House and will always keep the door to his private office open so that the public may have access to him.

The absence of news from the seat of the Balkan war yesterday lent color to the belief that the Turks are making stronger resistance along the Tchatalja lines than was at first thought.

New York markets: Money on call firm, 5 to 6 1-2 per cent.; ruling rate 5 1-2; closing bid 5 1-2; offered at 6. Spot cotton closed quiet. Flour quiet. Wheat, irregular; No. 2 red 1.08 to 1.08 1-2. Corn steady, 56. Turpentine steady. Rosin quiet.

Religious Head of All the Mohammedans.

THE SHEIK-UL-ISLAM

Constantinople, Nov. 12.—The sheik ul Islam, who has just proclaimed a holy war against the allies who are attacking Turkey, is the religious head of all the Mohammedans and his religious authority has been likened to that of the Pope of Rome. His most dreaded power is that of proclaiming a holy war, which might arouse the Moslems of British India and Egypt, French North Africa and German East Africa to armed rebellion. He has absolute control over all judicial and religious institutions.

WIRE TAPPERS ARRAIGNED

Swindlers of Wilmingtonians Are Held Under Bail for Examination Thursday — Guard Over the Victims is Doubled.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 12.—In the West Side Magistrates' Court today the seven prisoners—Charles Bradford, alias "Dutch Alonzo," or "Heine," as he is known; James McDonald, Charles and Frederick Gondorf, brothers; "Paper Collar Joe" Krakowski, alias "Sir John Gray" and "Slippery Joe" Eaton, alias "William Hunter," were arraigned before Magistrate Murphy and Attorney Abe Levy appeared as counsel for the whole bunch—including Carbonelle, against whom apparently there is not much evidence and whose discharge was asked for. The assistant District Attorney opposed this, and he was held under a lower bail, as were all the rest, at the original bail fixed, till 2 o'clock Thursday, for examination, because Witness Mason, the Norfolk real estate dealer, who is expected to identify the entire bunch, had not succeeded in getting here.

Old man Simon K. Jones, the Pittsburgh coal merchant victim, with his scraggy beard and worried look, was in court, as was Dr. Powell, the prominent Wilmington dentist, as the court attendants call him, and Counselor Kirby Cleveland Sidbury, both under a detective guard.

"Paper Collar Joe," "Dutch Alonzo" Bradford and Carbonelle were led back to the jail after the proceedings, no bail coming forward for them.

The police said today that the woman who posed in Wilmington as "Mrs. J. W. Dawsing," wife of the steerer for the Gondorfs, is a well known character in the early morning circles of the Great White Way, and is usually designated as "Ethel Davies." The identity of Dawsing, however, has not been disclosed.

Because of the offer made to Sidbury and Powell to accept what they had lost and a liberal bonus of $5,000, for their time, expenses and trouble, for which they were to drop all prosecution of the wire tappers and go home, Deputy Commissioner Dougherty has doubled their detective guard, and his vigilant watch of the haunts of the wire tappers which they are accustomed to frequent nightly. This is because Sidbury's refusal to take the money and disappear may, in the minds of the police, lead to an assault that will intimidate him sufficiently to cause him to accept the more than liberal offers of Gondorf's representatives.

It reminds them of the fate of Herman Rosenthal, who "squealed on the gang." It is said now in West Side court circles that if Sidbury and Powell would only fly the coop and make straight for the Tar-Heel country, they could carry $50,000 of the Gondorf gang's money.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 11.—Wilson is leading on the Presidential election returns now in. Two small counties yet to report and which are normally Democratic are expected to give him a plurality of nearly 1,000 over Taft.

DEMOCRATS DISCUSS CABINET

Washington, Nov. 12.—The return of Democratic Senators and Representatives is bringing out a renewal of cabinet discussion, although the talk still is wholly conjectural, nothing having come from President-elect Wilson to indicate his line of action. Incoming Democratic statesmen predict that in filling his cabinet Mr. Wilson will give one place to New York, another to New England and a third to Ohio, or one of the other States of the Middle West.

It is the view in Congressional circles that at least two of the seats at the cabinet table will be assigned to the South; that one will go to the Pacific coast and another to the States immediately west of the Mississippi, including Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. With this distribution, there would be left two cabinet officers that might be filled for reasons of peculiar fitness or expediency.

Senator O'Gorman's name figures prominently in the talk of cabinet possibilities, and speculation would assign him to the Department of Justice. The availability of William J. Bryan is also much discussed for the Department of State, or for Attorney General; and one Democratic Senator has coupled Mr. Bryan's name with the Ambassador to London.

While the prevailing opinion among Democrats now in Washington is that the Nebraskan may be tendered a cabineta position, opinion is divided as to his acceptance. Mr. Bryan himself has declined to discuss cabinet possibilities since he has been in Washington and has laughingly put aside all efforts to draw him into an expression as to his own willingness to accept an appointment, should it be offered him.

Senator Gardner, of Maine, Congressman Burleson, of Texas, and Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather service, are all advanced for the position of Secretary of Agriculture. Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina, and William F. McCombs, of New York, who were active leaders in Mr. Wilson's campaign committee, are also considered in all gossip in connection with cabinet appointments.

Reports reaching Democratic Congressmen and Senators now in Washington are that Mr. Wilson is pursuing a policy of silence regarding his ministerial advisers, but it is claimed he has dropped some intimations as to the policy he will follow, namely to recognize all sections and all elements, in an effort to harmonize the party, where that can be done without sacrificing the position taken in the Baltimore platform.

GEORGIA'S POPULAR VOTE

Official Vote Cast November 5th Announced Yesterday

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12.—The popular vote cast for the Presidential candidates in the State of Georgia Tuesday, November 5th, today was officially announced, as follows:

Wilson, 93,171; Roosevelt, 22,010; Taft, 5,191; Debs, 1,014; Chafin, 147.

NO LOCKED DOORS FOR GOV. WILSON

President-elect Will Inaugurate "Open Door" Policy at the White House.

ATTENDS TO STATE BUSINESS

Charlotte Delegation Calls on Governor to Attend 20th of May Celebration—Says Extra Session May Prevent.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson proposes to keep the door to his private office in the White House always open and accessible to the public, he announced today.

Governor Wilson said he had decided to maintain as far as possible the "open door" policy which he inaugurated at Trenton. During his term as Governor he has insisted that the door to his private office never be closed while he is in it.

"Are you going to keep the open door at Washington, too?" he was asked.

"I hope so," he replied. "I don't know what the arrangements are in the White House, but I intend to so far as possible."

His idea is that the executive of a State or a Nation should have no "locked doors" conferences or transact any business in his private office that the public could not actually see if they cared to.

"When I first took my office as Governor," he said, "I was surprised at the number of people who wanted to talk to me behind the back of their hands and in whispers."

The Governor has never been in the executive offices in Washington, but one of the correspondents drew for him a diagram of its interior, indicating that there were two doors to the left of the entrance which, if left open, would carry out the idea of giving the public a view of who is talking to the President in his office. The future President will depend upon the secret service men, of course, to keep out cranks and will have a system of appointments, but the custom as observed in Trenton has been that between appointments the Governor is "in to everybody."

The Governor had a busy day in Trenton. The newly elected members of the State Legislature came to call, as did William Hughes, future United States Senator from New Jersey and United States Senator Martine.

It was a day of congratuations, but the Governor also met a number of commissions, made some minor appointments and delivered several speeches. He addressed a delegation that came from Charlotte, N. C., to invite him to attend on May 20th next, the celebration of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. Thirty prominent citizens of the town, several of whom made urgent speeches, appealed to him to come.

"You must remember, however," said the President-elect in his speech, "that I haven't often been President of the United States and therefore I don't know what is in store for me. I haven't gotten close enough to the conscience of that office to see my way clear and see what my liberty will be to detach myself from my duties.

"There is a question which a good many newspaper men here, for instance, would like to have me express definitely. There may be an extra session of Congress upon which a good deal depends. Of course, if there is to be an extra session it will cover the 20th of May in all probability. Therefore, I cannot now either accept or decline the invitation which draws me so strongly, but I do feel that I owe it to the public duty to wait."

"What I am about to do is to go off on a vacation and forget a good many things that have happened in order to have the clearer brain for what will happen. I expect to get back on the 16th of December and make a horoscope of what will happen and see what invitations it will be advantageous for me to accept—advantageous to the government and my duties, of course, and not to me personally. With your gracious permission I will hold this invitation until that time with the assurance that my inclination and my heart go with it."

The Governor motored later to the State Home for Girls where he dedicated a building to be known as the Wilson cottage. He there delivered his first extended speech since he was elected to the Presidency.

"The whole basis of society is individual responsibility," said the Governor. "If you cannot hold the individual responsible for what he does then you cannot punish him; and if society is responsible for what he does there is no means that I know of punishing society. The very fact that crime exists, the very fact that moral dereliction exists is in itself a sort of penalty upon society and there are those who say these are symptoms that society is sick and we must cure it. Yet all the fabric and criminal law, for example, would fall down if there were no personal responsibility. It is not just to incarcerate an individual or to punish him with the extreme penalty of death if he is not responsible for what he did. The truth of the whole matter seems to lie, as usual, just about half way between the two extremes. Undoubtedly there is a great deal, a vast deal for which society is responsibile and that is the justification for the existence of institutions of this sort. We have no right to spend the public money for the benefit of a few or for the relief of a few unless by doing so we confer a general benefit and reach a general public object.

"The great argument—you will not suspect me of touching upon a party question—against special privilege is simply the argument that it gives one set of people an advantage that others do not enjoy and, therefore, is not a basis of moral quality or of equality of opportunity. So that society is constantly studying its moral responsibilities.

"For, after all, morals sadly need buttressing in all of us. We are very much more trustworthy when we are amongst good people than when we are amongst bad people. A bad example is dreadfully contagious, even with the best of us. And it would not do for any of us to live too long in the environment from which some of these poor girls have been rescued. We are susceptible of damage in our morals. It is almost terrible to think aside from the providence and grace of God of how much of our morals depends upon the watchful eyes of our neighbors."

The Governor returned to Princeton tonight by automobile.

AFFAIRS AT RALEIGH

Governor Issues Commission — Rewards Offered—Tobacco Sales

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 12.—Governor Kitchin has commissioned E. F. Watson, of Burnsville, as a member of the State Board of Elections to succeed J. Frank Ray, of Macon, who resigns on account of having been elected a member of the lower House of the General Assembly.

A reward of $250 is offered by the State through Governor Kitchin for the arrest of Jeter Burnett, the negro who murdered Felix Mitchell at Magnetic City on September 21st, last.

Ae requisition was issued today by Governor Kitchin on the Governor of Georgia for John Huff, the negro wanted in Asheville for the murder of Policeman McConnell. The fugitive is being held by the Georgia authorities pending the arrival of North Carolina officers with the necessary requisition papers.

The State Department of Agriculture is complaining that it is next to impossible to get complete reports from the tobacco warehouses of the State as to sales of leaf tobacco during each month. The State law requires these reports and provides for prosecuting those warehousemen who fail to make the reports. However, the commissioner of agriculture has thus far hesitated to institute prosecutions although the reports have at no time been complete as the law requires because of the delinquents. The reports for October show 25,224,279 pounds sales, of which 22,745,936 was first hand for the growers. Greenville led with 6,804,742 pounds and Winston-Salem was second with 6,101,775. Some others notable were Durham 712,469, Madison 628,245.

Arthur Johnson, Pender county, receives from Governor Kitchin a reprieve from November 9th to February 7th in connection with the death sentence he is under for murder in Pender. The prisoner had appealed to the Supreme Court and failed to perfect the appeal in time for this to act as a stay of execution and the reprieve is purely for the purpose of remedying this defect so that the Supreme Court may review the case.

VIOLATED SPEED LAWS

Deliberate and Continued Violation Is Charged by Trainmen at Hearing

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12.—Deliberate and continuedd violation of the speed laws by railroads throughout the country was charged at this afternoon's session of the Georgia Railroad strike arbitration board by Vice President James Murdock, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

After President Charles Wickersham, of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad, a member of the board, had objected to the charge, the record with Mr. Murdock's consent was changed to read:

"It is a well-known fact that the railroad trains have at times exceeded the speed limit and that the officials find it impossible to keep check on such violations."

Judge Chambers late today ruled that that board should consider as proven the labor contention that the Georgia Railroad engineers and conductors interpreted the instruction bulletin of the railroad issued on November 14th as meaning that the 16-hour law might be violated in certain cases. It was this interpretation of the bulletin that led to the discharge of Conductor Paschal.

JOHNSON LEADING PITCHER.

Beats Out Joe Wood, Whose Average is Higher.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Although Joe Wood, the hero of the world's series, tops the list of pitchers in the 1912 American league averages, issued tonight, Walter Johnson, of the Washington club, probably is the leading pitcher of the season.

In games won and lost, Wood excels Johnson, but the Washington pitcher worked in seven more games than did Wood. Johnson struck out 303 men in 368 innings, the season's record—and held 1,321 opposing batsmen to 89 runs. Wood pitched 344 innings in 43 games, during which 104 runs were scored off him. He struck out 258 batters. The Boston pitcher won 34 out of 39 games, while Johnson won 32 out of 44, besides playing two ties.

Edward Walsh, of the Chicago club, was the "work horse" of the season. He pitched in 62 games, 12 more than any pitcher in the league.

CARL MORRIS WON.

Knocked Out Canadian Champion in Second Round.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12.—Carl Morris, the Sapulpa, Okla., heavyweight pugilist, who was for a time the leading "white hope," knocked out Jack Keating, the Canadian heavyweight champion in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight.

Three right upper cuts to the chin put Keating down for a count of nine and Morris put him out a few seconds later with a left handed blow to the body. Keating was carried from the ring and did not revive until after he had reached his dressing room.

SENATORIAL HEADQUARTERS.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 12.—All the affairs pertaining to the Senatorial campaigns of both Senator Simmons and Governor Kitchin have been wound up and the managers of the respective headquarters, Hon. S. L. Rogers, for Senator Simmons, and Mr. Frank R. McNinch, for Governor Kitchin, have gone to their homes, Mr. Rogers to Franklin, Macon county, and Mr. McNinch to Charlotte. Both these gentlemen are popular in Raleigh and their many friends here have greatly enjoyed having them here for the campaign period.

With the passing of the election there has come around in State affairs interested speculation as to the session of the North Carolina General Assembly that convenes early in January and problems that will probably confront it. First of all, there will be the selection of a speaker of the house who has a large share in the shaping of the legislation. The man who is most talked of for the place, both because he was the first in the race and because he has political alignments and support that give greatest promise of his selection for the speakership is Hon. George W. Connor, of Wilson, who has been prominent in two previous legislatures and has demonstrated his ability for the task of presiding over the house. Mr. Connor is understood to be making an active campaign for the place.

Another active candidate for the speakership is Hon. E. M. Koonce, of Onslow county, who was in the race for the place two years ago when Hon. W. C. Dowd, of Charlotte, was chosen speaker. Mr. Koonce has had much legislative experience and is quite popular throughout the State. He was one of the most ardent supporters of Governor Kitchin in his recent campaign for the United States Senate. He has been especially active in the past in efforts to get the most drastic legislation as to trusts and for insurance regulation, his hardest but unsuccessful fight two years ago having been for a legislative commission to investigate insurance matters in this State.

One hears frequent mention of Hon. E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, for the speakership, but he is not an active candidate. Indeed, no word has come from him yet as to whether he aspires to the place this time or not. He served as speaker of the 1909 Legislature that was one of the most stirring in recent years.

SALARY LIMIT DISCUSSED

Sliding Scale May Be Adopted by Minor League Association

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 12.—A "sliding scale" salary limit probably will be adopted by the National Association of Minor Leagues, it was said here tonight by magnates who discussed the matter at the brief opening session of the association's annual meeting today. According to a plan informally broached, a limit for each league, graded according to its class, will be proposed and after some possible adjustment of detail will become a rule, the magnates predicted.

Serious opposition to a salary limit that they thought would tend to "impair the quality of baseball," developed among representatives of the American Association and the International League. Some magnates appeared afraid of confusion from the "sliding scale."

After President M. H. Sexton, called the meeting to order, reports were read, routine preliminary business was disposed of, credentials examined and committees appointed. In the crowd which thronged a hotel where the meeting was held were the leading baseball men of the country.

This salary limit question will be the principal matter of official business to appear before the association at its meeting tomorrow and the day after.

President Charles W. Murphy and Manager John Evers, of the Chicago National League club, appeared at the meeting, but neither would admit more interest in the proceedings than a desire to promote personal friendship with American baseball men. They laughed at talk of a trade of Joe Tinker and said they were just "looking around."

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Just a year late, the State Department today received the required legal notice of the approval by the State of Ohio of the proposed constitutional income tax amendment. Two affirmative votes are yet required to afford the three-fourths vote prescribed by the consitution to secure the adoption of the amendment, with 10 States yet to be heard from.

ABOUT THE ELECTION

Rev. E. B. Carr Writes About His Churches and People

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., Nov. 12.—Great enthusiasm has been manifested by the people of our nation over the election, especially for the past month or so. Men have been so absorbed in what would be the outcome of the election that we have forgotten a great many things which are of great importance. Some are rejoicing over the results of the election, while others are mourning over their defeat. I feel like I want to rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

One of the things which has been neglected during our great enthusiasm over the election, is the Church and Manse building League Fund of Wilmington Presbytery. Rev. J. S. Crowley sent out a call on this fund over two weeks ago for Currie church to help complete the building, but brethren, there has not come in one-third of the money as yet. Now the election is over, we have seen the outcome of the election, let us stop thinking so much about it, and turn our attention to the Church and Manse Building League Fund of Wilmington Presbytery. If you are a member of the league, why then be a member indeed, and not simply in name; don't neglect to answer these calls, and especially the one which has already been sent out for Currie church. The Building League is not a slip-shod affair, it is a real business for the Lord and His Cause, and now let us be manly and do a man's part in the matter of the league. Be a member of the league, not in Word, but indeed and in Truth. Yours very sincerely,

E. B. CARR.

Scarcity of Common Laborers In Greensboro—Two Weddings of State Interest — Traveling Man In Trouble

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 12.—There is a scarcity of common labor—and in instances skilled labor—in Greensboro with little hope for relief during the next few weeks at least. Scarcely a week passes but contractors for both public and semi-public works are forced to resort to newspaper advertising in an effort to get sufficient help to either complete some job or start another.

The price of common labor has advanced during the past six months from $1 per day to $1.25 and then $1.50, and now it is understood that some common labor here is being paid $1.75 per day, the highest price in the history of Greensboro. One contractor declares that this unusually high price that common labor commands is really one reason why labor is scarce; that there are many idle negroes in town who, if they can work four or five days and make as much now as they did when labor was $1 per day, they won't work any more days than sufficient to make a bare living. This man pointed out as a substantiation of his claim that negroes now "knock off" on Saturday and straggle back to work about noon Monday or Tuesday. There is a vast amount of public and private work now going on here and more common and skilled labor is in demand than perhaps in many years past if ever before.

Mr. Charles A. Hines, a popular attorney of this place, left last evening for Roxboro where this evening he will wed Miss Ida Winstead, of that place. Miss Winstead is popular in Greensboro with a large circle of friends formed while she was a student at the Greensboro Female College and she will again be warmly welcomed here.

A pretty home wedding uniting two of Greensboro's most popular young people, was solemnized this evening at 9 o'clock when Miss Lucile Rees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rees became the bride of Mr. Walter Murray. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents on West Gaston street and was witnessed by a limited number of friends and relatives of the young people. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Murray leave for a honeymoon in the North and upon their return will be at home in the fashionable Summit avenue section of the city.

Ernest Piondexter, a young traveling man charged with securing money under false pretenses from the Huffine and Guilford hotels here, and for whose return to North Carolina Gov. Kitchin had issued requisition papers on the chief justice of the District of Columbia court, stepped off a southbound train from Washington yesterday just as a local officer was preparing to start after him. He went before Judge Eure and made such a plain statement of his case that a plea of nolo contendere was permitted and the defendant taxed with the costs. It was substantiated that young Poindexter had been away from Washington on account of illness in his family; that he had not checked up his bank book; that when informed that his checks given here had gone to protest he secured the indorsement of his brother to two notes for $500 and left the notes with a party in Washington to raise the money on and deposit the money to his credit. It was further stated that this party, a lawyer, secured the money but applied it to his own use and that Poindexter was greatly embarrassed when he returned to Washington to find that the money had not been deposited and that his checks had gone to protest. He came to Greensboro voluntarily to explain the situation. The amounts of the checks were settled satisfactorily and Poindexter returned to his wife who is seriously ill, on a late train.

Rev. W. E. Abernethy, pastor of Spring Garden Street Methodist church here, received a message stating that his mother, Mrs. R. L. Abernethy, was dying at her home at Rutherford College and left at once for that place. Later a message was received here stating that Mrs. Abernethy died during the afternoon. She suffered a stroke of paralysis two weeks ago.

COTTON MILL BURNED.

Buildings and Machinery at Manchester Totally Destroyed.

(Fayetteville Observer, 12th.)

We had a brief notice in Monday's Observer of the burning of the cotton mill at Manchester, a village on the A. & Y. branch of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, 12 miles from Fayetteville. The fire was discovered at between 5 and 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and had then made good headway. It is thought to have originated in the "lapper" room, and to have burned a covered wooden passageway between the two brick buildings and caught the main building.

The mill, which made yarns only, was entirely consumed, together with all the spindles, spindle frames and other appurtenances. In addition to the old ones, three brand new Whiting spindle frames had just been installed and were at work.

The mill was running on full time, and had orders ahead. It was the property of the estate of the late W. G. Robertson, who died several months ago. There was partial insurance, but the total loss has not been estimated.

Manchester Mill was in operation before the Civil War, and was built and first run by the late Duncan Murchison. Then it went into the hands of Hon. I. A. Murchison, of Manchester, who sold it to A. K. & W. J. McDiarmid, who operated it for some years, and sold it, W. G. Robertson being the last owner.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Speaker Clark will arrive in Washington next Friday. The Speaker intends to devote the time between his arrival and the convening of Congress to rest and recreation. He went directly from Congressional work into the campaign.

REMAINS TO KINSTON

U. S. A. Sergeant Commits Suicide—Blind Tigers—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 12.—The remains of Sergeant Cecil M. Jordan, U. S. A., who committed suicide near York, Pa., last Friday, were brought to this city and interred in Maplewood cemetery. His widow and brother-in-law accompanied the body to Kinston. Jordan shot himself in a hotel at Red Lion, Pa., near York. No cause can be assigned for his act, and it is believed that he was temporarily insane. Listening to the gossip of a party in the hotel lobby for awhile, he appeared to be in good humor. He had left but a few minutes when he took his life, shooting himself through the left temple with a revolver. Sergeant Jordan was in charge of the recruiting station at Lancaster, Pa. He had been in the army ten years, and was stationed at Fort Monroe, Va., before transferred to the general recruiting service. He married at York. Jordan was of a prominent family in this city, his birthplace. His father, C. M. Jordan, four brothers, W. E. Jordan, of Grand Junction, Col.; I. H. Jordan, of Charlotte, and George L. and Ray, of Kinston, and one sister, Miss Annie, his mother and wife survive him. The funeral was largely attended, the unfortunate young man having been very popular with a large number of friends here before entering the army.

After receiving information of the operation on a wholesale order of a blind tiger on Tuckahoe, in the southern end of the city, the police raided the place, in the rear of a market at 221 South Queen street. The liquor was stored in a small sheet-iron warehouse, and when the officers entered the lot on which the house was located, they found a crowd of 50 or 75 men gathered about the place. The operators fled before the officers arrived. The whiskey was in two barrels, each of which held about 200 half pint bottles. The top layer of one barrel had been removed, and the other had not been opened. It was evident that the police interrupted a flourishing business which had only well begun. The liquor was seized by the officers. Bill Edwards, recently of Onslow county, is supposed to have been the owner, having borrowed the use of the warehouse from A. J. Waters, the butcher, to whom it belonged, to store "some goods" in. Edwards can not be found, nor can G. W. Sandlin, with whom he boarded. The seizure of the intoxicants was in accord with an act of the last Legislature, the simple proof of ownership being said to be sufficient to convict.

Mr. Geo. Tilghman, a prosperous planter of Caswell, and little daughter, were in jured in a runaway accident near that place. The horse which was drawing a wagon in which they were riding became frightened, and when it dashed off they were thrown from the vehicle. The little girl was not badly hurt, but Mr. Tilghman's left leg was broken just above the ankle, and is in such bad condition that it may have to be amputated.

The police here are aiding the authorities at Goldsboro in a search for John Washington, colored, who killed a man in that town over a woman, it is presumed. Washington is a Kinston negro, and bore a bad reputation here. His wife had secured counsel to bring action against him for divorce, on the grounds of non-suport and his unlawful relations with the Goldsboro woman. Efforts to locate the criminal here have been unsuccessful, and it is doubtful if he will be captured in this vicinity, where he is wanted on other charges.

EARTHQUAKE IN BEAUFORT?

Shocks Felt Sunday—Lectures by Dr. Sikes—Other News Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Nov. 12.—Something very much like a slight earthquake shock was felt in this city Sunday by a number of citizens. For about ten minutes during divine services at the Presbyterian church the windows rattled a great deal as if the building was being shaken, and several people were on the point of leaving the building. Reports coming from the lower part of the county today state that several shocks were felt near Pantego, Pungo and Belhaven, also in the town of Edenton it was very perceptible.

Dr. E. W. Sikes, professor of history at Wake Forest College, is coming to this city the latter part of this week and will deliver three lectures in Washington, under what is known in North Carolina as "The University Extension Lecture Series System." This movement was first inaugurated in this State about two years ago, by the State Literary and Historical Association. Dr. Sykes will lecture in the public school auditorium Thursday evening and Friday afternoon of this week and the subject will be, "The History of the Political Parties In America." On Friday evening he will lecture on Economics ,the subject being, "Wealth and Poverty."

Beaufort county is making rapid strides along educational as well as other lines and there are now five new school houses being erected at different townships throughout the county. Washington already has one of the finest systems of public schools in the State and the local school building is one of the best and most thoroughly equipped in Eastern Carolina.

Work on the handsome new Federal building is progressing rapidly and it is understood work on the interior will soon be commenced. The building is a very handsome and imposing structure situated on the corner of Second and Market streets, two of the city's most important thoroughfares, and when completed will be one of the finest public buildings in the South.

The local lodge Knights of Pythias of this city, expects to send over a large delegation to Newbern to participate in the district meeting.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.

Revival, Orchestra, Debating, Football Tennis and Gym. Team.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Davidson, N. C., Nov. 11.—Davidson campus is alive with activities this week. The election of Wilson and the holiday which followed has put the boys in the best of spirits and this week will probably be the livest and most interesting of the Fall term. The Y. M. C. A. through the efforts of Mr. Jas. Sprunt, has secured the services of Dr. Chafer, who preached in Wilmington a few weeks ago, to hold evangelistic services for the especial benefit of the students. Through the kindness of the Y. M. C. A. these services are being held in the Presbyterian church in order to give the town the benefit also. Dr Chafer is holding two services a day, also a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. for the boys to get in personal touch with him.

The orchestra leaves tonight on a week's trip through South Carolina and Georgia, giving concerts principally at schools and colleges, who are less fortunate in not having an orchestra. The Glee Club accompanies the orchestra and will do their share of the evenings' entertainments. The orchestra is composed of the following: H. L. Barr, manager; R. A. Brown, leader; first violin, Brown, LaNier, Harper; second violin, McIlwaine; clarinet, Osteen; flute, Faw; cornet, Campbell, Graves; trombone, Hamilton; alto horn, Farran; bass viol, Barr; drums, Duffie; piano, Johnston. The Glee Club is as follows: first tenors, Ferran, Belk, Camubell; second tenors, Brown, McIlwaine, Duffie; first bass, Johnston, Hamilton, Graves; second bass, Barr, LaNier, Osteen. The schedule is as follows: Greenville Female College, Greenville, S. C., Tuesday night; Easly, S. C., Wednesday night; Brenau College, Gainesvile, Ga., Thursday night, and Toccoa, Ga., Friday night. The orchestra and glee club will return to Davidson next Tuesday morning.

Saturday night in Shearer Hall the inter-society debate was held to select the team to represent Davidson in the coming debate with the University of South Carolina. The subject was the same as the one in the coming debate. "Resolved: That United States Ships Should Pass Through the Panama Canal Free of Toll." The Philonthropic Literary society was represented by Messrs. Williams, Rowan and Davis and the Eumeneam by Messrs. Golden, King and Marvin. The affirmative was represented by Messrs. Golden, Williams and King, the negative by Rowan, Davis and Marvin. Messrs. Golden and Williams were chosen by the faculty or judges, with Mr. King as alternate. Davidson has the negative in the debate, which is to be held in January at Winthrop College in Rock Hill, S. C.

The football team leaves next Monday for a long trip to Florida, where they play Stetson in Leland on the 21st. Coach Cook has had the team at practice every afternoon for three hours since their defeat by Washington & Lee. Every man is doing his best and although Coach Cook has nothing to give out at present, everyboy in the school is confident that Davidson will come back and defeat Wake Forest on Thanksgiving. Several new men are out and are showing up well.

Davidson meets the strong tennis team from Erskine here Friday and Saturday. The tennis tournament held here some time ago to select the team to represent Davidson was so popular that the management has decided to have several tournaments here this year. The first with Erskine is an annual tournament and is looked forward to almost as much as any other game during the year. Davidson is represented by Messrs. Crawford and Moore. Friday afternoon will be given up to the doubles. Saturday Mr. Crawford will play his brother, who represents Erskine, and Mr. White will play Mr. Moore.

The Davidson gym team will leave next week for Lancaster, S. C., where they will give an exhibition for the benefit of the Boy Scouts. The gym. team gave a great many exhibits last year and had two meets with the University and Washington & Lee. This year's team promises to be equally as good. A great many exhibits have been arranged. The team is composed of the following: Messrs. Russell Minter and J. R. Minter, Davidson; E. C. Murray, Graham; J. G. Thacker, Greensboro; J. W. S. Gilchrist, Charlotte; W. L. Boggs, Greenville, S. C.; E. L. Booe, Davidson. Mr. Thacker is captain and J. R. Minter manager.

Dr. Martin is spending two weeks in the South in the interest of the school.

NEW METHODS OF TREATING CONSUMPTION

No Longer Necessary for Patients to Seek Dry Climates

After a number of years of successfully fighting Consumption in the various countries of Europe, there has been brought to the United States a preparation which bids fair to take the lead in the war on the Great White Plague.

The preparation, which is called "Sirolin," does away with the necessity of the patient seeking a dry climate, and obtains just as remarkable results in the dampest localities.

There is scarcely a prominent physician in Europe who is not prescribing Sirolin with remarkable results and the medical profession in our own country have also taken it up.

You can learn more about Sirolin by addressing the Sirolin Co., 225 West Broadway, New York City. All leading druggists are recommending and distributing Sirolin with considerable success.

Healthy Baby is Precious Blessing

To Make It Healthy and Keep It Healthy Use a Reliable Baby Laxative

In spite of the greatest personal care and the most intelligent attention to diet babies and children will become constipated, and it is a fact that constipation and indigestion have wrecked many a young life. To start with a good digestive apparatus is to start life without handicap.

But as we cannot all have perfect working bowels we must do the next best thing and acquire them, or train them to become healthy. This can be done by the use of a laxative-tonic very highly recommended by a great many mothers. The remedy is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and has been on the market for two generations. It can be bought conveniently at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, and those who are already convinced of its merits buy the dollar size.

Its mildness makes it the ideal medicine for children, and it is also very pleasant to the taste. It does not hide behind the name of a fruit or a vegetable and yet it is genuinely harmless. Very little of it is required and its frequent use does not cause it to lose its effect, as is the case with so many other remedies.

Thousands can testify to its merits in constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headaches, etc., among them reliable people like Mrs. Clara Lewis, the mother of Baby Lewis, Becks Store, Ky., and Mrs. Della Latimore, Edgewood, Ga. They keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it from infancy to old age. The users of

BABY LEWIS

Syrup Pepsin have learned to avoid cathartics, salt waters, pills and other harsh remedies, for they do but temporary good and are a shock to any delicate system.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 414 Washington street, Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business, without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Very few get rich real quick.

Watch us finish up the Panama Canal.

The Sublime Porte has gotten into a ridiculous predicament.

In view of the Democratic idea of economy, the new pie counter will not contain much of a free lunch.

The Hon. William J. Bryan has been spending several days at Washington. Somehow or other, Washington always did look good to him.

Roosevelt was blamed for making Taft President and now he is blamed for unmaking the President. Evidently there are some men who do not allow a man to correct his mistakes.

This is said to be a country of "free speech" but it seems that New York detectives have a way of preventing it when they do not want much of it from those who are under their care.

The Bull Moose issued a formal statement on Monday saying that "the Progressive party has come to stay." Sure, Mike! We knew all along that it would stay as long as the colonel will stay.

A Spartanburg woman wants to get a divorce from her husband simply because he has been intoxicated twice during their married life. Probably her real reason is that she found out that the gentleman is entirely too fond of Greenville.

A writer who has been through the great Sahara desert reasserts the fact that "a camel can go two weeks without taking a drink." A camel could not manage to get a drink more than every four weeks in certain arid sections of North Carolina.

The way for a country to become independent is to produce all it consumes and not consume all its produces. The country which is the most prosperous is the one which sells instead of buys. Producers are always better off than consumers.

Crow tastes better eaten in silence and seasoned with prudence. A fellow who says bad things while he is eating crow might say something that he would like to recall when he wants to run for office in the future. A good loser has a chance to come back.

Prosperity has no reason to get scared at a Democratic administration. The administration is only after those freebooters who get their prosperity by levying tribute on the people. The people want a share of prosperity by being permitted to keep more of what they produce.

Under the head of "Social Justice," the Progressive party can include everything that has never been thought of. We demand that the platform be so amended that it will furnish a safe and sane plan for getting young and staying young. It may as well do that as to promise a lot of other things it can't do.

The Columbia State wants Woodrow Wilson to make that city his Winter home. Columbia is a mighty nice place, but before Wilmington is overlooked, hadn't the President-elect better investigate the effort of the Columbia State to get something for nothing out of the Hon. Cone Johnson, of Texas? How about those watermelons?

Why should a man throw a vote away for something he knows he cannot get? We should handle the right of freemen cautiously, judiciously and wisely. Many men think they are voting for principle, when they merely waste a ballot that would count in a substantial result. Why should a desirable citizen butt his head against a brick wall any more than a billy goat?

EXTRA SESSION TALK

It was said recently that "Governor Wilson is a good listener." He had hardly been elected till the press began to discuss the probable appointees of his cabinet. He listened but a short while and then promptly settled the whole matter by stating that discussion and predictions concerning the cabinet were premature. He declared that there was literally no conclusion one way or the other as to any member of his cabinet. The fact is, the Governor wanted to take a rest from the wearing work of the campaign before he would stop to consider any matter four months in advance of his inauguration. Everything concerning the cabinet at present is mere speculation, but editors sometimes speculate in a way that comes mighty close to being what is not only possible but quite probable. It does not hurt very much to speculate, but at the outset, Governor Wilson let it be knewn that speculation could be taken only for what it is worth.

The President-elect settled the question as to guesses about his cabinet, and then the press began to discuss the advisability of calling an extra session of Congress to revise the tariff downward. President Wilson wants to take a rest but meanwhile he can listen to the extra session demands. It is time enough for him to commit himself after he hears all the talk and comes to a conclusion as to what time is more opportune to carry out the party's campaign pledge made in all its platforms. The New York World was first to demand an extra session to carry out the party's pledges, but many conservative newspapers decry tariff legislation so early in the new administration on the ground that it might disturb business. The World in answering some of the objections to a special session, goes on to say:

"Our neighbor, the Sun, professes to find many Democrats of the more conservative sort who are opposed to an extra session of Congress in March. It is said that they fear hasty tariff legislation, believing that it will 'upset business.' The country is well acquainted with Democrats of this type. They are the men who put the stigma of perfidy and dishonor upon the party in 1984. They are the men who managed the disastrous Parker campaign in 1904. They are the men whose representatives in the Baltimore Convention this year were told by a large majority of the delegates that they were not wanted. If there is to be no extra session the Democratic Congress will not meet until a year from next December. In that case there can be no tariff legislation until the Spring or Summer of 1914, when another Congressional campaign will be under way. If measures reducing the cost of living and removing monopoly from the tariff will upset business in the Spring of 1913 they will upset business also in the Spring of 1914. There is room for wide differences of opinion as to the effect upon business of honest and judicious tariff legislation, but no one acquainted with the temper of the people can question the fate of a political party which palters with this issue. Business that is worthy of consideration will not be upset in any case. That the Democratic party will be upset if it acts tardily and inefficiently is certain. Men study public opinion in this country in vain if they do not learn that the strongest of its impulses now is toward direct popular government, toward the fullest popular responsibility, with insistence upon prompt obedience to its will. It has been put off a good many times of late. It will not be put off forevere. Regular sessions of new Congresses were fixed thirteen months after their election under other conditions than now exist. It is these delays and obstacles which selfish interests have used to confuse the people's representatives and to defeat their worthiest purposes. There is not a tariff glutton in America, Republican or Democrat, who does not know that the voice of the people as heard last Tuesday will grow fainter and fainter with each passing month. This is why they advise delay. They cannot beat the people at the polls. They hope to beat them in Congress."

Argument has been made by the so-called conservative press that the demand for revision was not emphatic enough in the recent election for Congress to make a rush at the work of revision. Indeed, it is urged that the popular vote for the two protection parties was greater than the Democratic vote, hence the country really had not declared for tariff revision at all. It is needless to say that such reasons have no warrant, for the country has loudly spoken twice for revision—one in 1910 when a Democratic House was elected squarely on that issue between the two parties. The other time was on the 5th instant, when the country returned an overwhelming majority to the lower House of Congress and elected Legislatures which will chose Democratic Senators. It is in the Congressional elections that we get the will of the people, for the members of the lower House represent the people.

There is no room to doubt that the country has declared overwhelmingly for tariff revision, so that the only question is when the party will begin to carry out its tariff pledge to the country. That largely depends upon the convenience of President-elect Wilson and he will have plenty of time between now and March 4th to consider that matter. He has the courage to decide and we believe he has the wisdom to consider all the conditions and decide upon the proper course for the country first and the Democratic party last. The country is all the people and the Democratic party is only a portion of the people.

Alum Baking Powder will not make healthful food

The country is on a wave of prosperity and it will be up to President Wilson to decide what is best for the country and his party, for what is best for one is best for the other. However, we are satisfied that if time can be gained in revising the tariff at as early as possible, President Wilson will call an extra session and be over with a pledge upon which his party has carried the country. As the party must carry out its platform pledge it would be advisable to do it as early as possible, so its effect can be experienced before the Congressional elections two years hence. The country is as ready for revision now as it was two years ago. It accepted revision in good faith in 1912, and it will accept it in good faith at an extra session. It strikes us that the sooner it is done the better it will be for the country and the party. It is more in the manner of revision than it will be in haste that the country is concerned.

The Democratic party has the courage to stand or fall on tariff revision but if it is postponed till the regular session a year from December it will not give the Democratic system time to be tried out for the 1914 election. Nobody wants to upset business, and neither does the Democratic party care to risk being upset by postponing action till within a year of another election. The effect from tariff legislation will be slow at best, and while the country is prosperous a gradual reduction in accordance with the Baltimore platform need not cause a ripple in the prosperity of this country. It is prosperous in spite of the tariff—high or low.

WHERE WILL THE INSURGENTS STAND?

The Democrats will have a small majority of the Senate but they shall expect their insurgent allies to stand by them in the interest of the people. However, there is a manifest purpose to argue the insurgents back into the standpat ranks by appealing to their partisan prejudices. Hence this editorial reference to the Republican Senators who are either Progressives or Insurgents:

"Whatever else the recent election may have done, the probability is that it wiped the Republican slate in the Senate and the House clean of insurgency. So long as the control of the Senate was evenly matched between Democrats and Republicans, with the insurgents holding the balance of power, the men who refused to go along with the regular Republicans had an influence entirely out of proportion to their numbers and the size of the States they represented. In the Senate, for instance, six insurgents, by playing the Democrats against the regular Republicans, could shape legislation to suit their own ends. Now, however, the power of the insurgents is gone. Unless they are willing to work with the regular Republicans in the Senate and the House as an aggressive minority, they will not even attract passing notice. Voting with the Democrats would be a nice tribute to Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson, but it would not improve the political prospects of the insurgents. The new Congress will test the political faith of the insurgents. The situation is a trying one. They can no longer set themselves up as a separate minority. They cannot even scare the new majority by threatening to vote with the Republican minority occasionally. The insurgents will have to play the game now according to the rules. Either they must swing along with the Democrats or they may become part and parcel of a fighting minority. The Republicans, however, will insist upon a declaration of faith from the insurgents. They cannot afford to entertain kickers in their own camp. The Republican minority must turn itself into a compact and loyal fighting force if it is to make effective opposition to the Democrats."

The Post evidently underestimates the high purpose of the Insurgents. At the last session of Congress, they were not merely playing for political advantage, but were conscientious in doing their duty to the people. Their faith is not that of the standpatters, and they will be found loyal to the people when their loyalty is needed. The Insurgents do not intend to back pedal from their justifiable position in allying themselves on occasion with the party which desires to legislate for the people instead of for special interests. The Insurgents were standing for a principle.

GREEK PATRIOTISM.

The Charlotte Greeks on Sunday emulated the splendid patriotism of the Wilmington Greeks who some weeks ago assembled and came promptly to the rescue of the mother country with both money and men. Mr. Demetre G. Vafiadi, the Royal Grecian Vice Consul at Wilmington, whose jurisdiction is over the Carolinas and Georgia, visited Charlotte and delivered an eloquent and inspiring address to the Greeks of that city at a meeting held last Sunday. The Hellenic spirit was aroused and Mr. Vafiadi's appeal was responded to with a subscription of $1,000 in cash and several volunteers for the patriotic army of the Grecian kingdom in the war by the Balkan allies against Turkey.

About 100 Greeks attended the Charlotte meeting, and while the Greeks of that city responded nobly to the call for funds and men, there has been nothing anywhere to equal the patriotism of Wilmington's 50 Greeks who donated $1,003 and raised several volunteers in the space of ten minutes. We wish to do honor to the Greeks of Charlotte and Wilmington, and to say that the same spirit has been manifested by thousands of these people who have settled in the various cities of the North and the South. There has been a spontaneous answer all over this country to the call of the mother country, and we recall it to express admiration for their devotion and patriotism. They display a high type of manhood, and we are sure that men of their type can but make good citizens of their adopted country. We will be only too glad to welcome back the valiant young Greeks who have gone to war in a righteous cause.

Col. Roosevelt relapsed into silence and refused to talk after the landslide. However, he remained silent for a week only, but it turns out that he was simply keeping quiet so he could prepare the formal statement which he issued Monday. The colonel's silence means that he is quietly getting ready to break the silence.

Some economist has come forward with the assertion that "go" is responsible for the high cost of living. He says it is "go to the moving pictures," "go to the theatre", "go shopping—go anywhere and go everywhere." Of course, that is partly responsible for it, but that doesn't include all the "goes", for we go to the grocer, we go to the butcher, we go to the clothier, we go to the milliner, we go joy-riding and we go broke. It really is not a good idea to "go" so much. Finally, we ought never go a cent on the ponies.

CURRENT COMMENT.

With President Woodrow Wilson present the next 20th of May celebration in Charlotte will be an event long to be remembered, Charlotte is going after the President as if it meant to have him on that occasion and much hope and confidence is expressed that he will come.—Charlotte Chronicle.

That Bladen county man evidently wants more for making an ascension in a balloon than the average balloonist makes in a whole year.—Newbern Sun.

It is to be noted that five out of the six woman's suffrage States voted against Roosevelt. Perhaps he may revise his opinion about votes for women.—Raleigh News and Observer.

We think it an excellent thing for Charlotte that Alexander Sprunt & Son cotton merchants, of Wilmington, and one of the biggest firms in the United States, have opened a branch office in this city. It will mean great things for the farmers of this section in the strengthening of the cotton market. We believe the step will prove of equally great advantage to the aggressive firm that is making it.—Charlotte News.

A Tar Heel boy at Columbia College, New York, made a speech on the streets of the great city recently that so pleased the public that he was sent by the speakers' bureau of the Democratic National Committee to Lake Canada in the northern part of New York State to make a speech for Woodrow Wilson. The young man is R. L. McMillan, better known as "Roy" and he hails from Scotland county.—Charity and Children.

The complete returns from North Carolina as to the election of last Tuesday are expected to show that there was a big vote in the State. With returns from 75 counties, some official and some sem-iofficial, the totals, with some counties of the 75 not included in the vote for Governor, show that Hon. Locke Craig for Governor received 116,239 and Governor Woodrow Wilson, for President, 111,557. This gives the State ticket on these incomplete returns a lear of 4,682 over the Democratic National ticket. The figures show that Roosevelt on the Progressive ticket received 8,368 votes, and Iredell Meares for Governor 38,615, while on the Republican ticket President Taft has 23,660 and for Governor Thomas Settle 36,027, showing that Settle ran ahead of Taft and that Meares fell behind Roosevelt. The record is one of which Democracy has a right to be proud. The majority for Governor Wilson and Mr. Craig, on these figures and on the complete figures, will be great. The people of this State believe, and believe rightly, in Democracy.—Raleigh News and Observer.

SAVE THE HAIR

Newbro's Herpicide Will Do It

No woman should have poor, thin, scraggy hair, and no man need become bald. Poor hair and final baldness are due to the dandruff germ.

Newbro's Herpicide will destroy this little germ and stop the hair from falling. Further evidence of this is found in a letter from Mrs. F. Neilsen, of Tomah, Wis. She says: "I fought the worst kind of dandruff for nine years. I have been using Herpicide now one week, and my scalp is healthy, the dandruff has gone and the itching has stopped. It is the best remedy for scalp diseases I ever saw, and I have seen many."

Don't subject yourself to disappointment and expense by accepting something claimed to be "just as good" as Newbro's Herpicide. These off brands may possibly be good, but why take chances? The genuine and original dandruff germ destroyer can always be obtained. If your own druggist has nothing but "just as good" articles, go to R. R. Bellamy, who will furnish you with Newbro's Herpicide and guarantees one dollar size bottles. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

PARK MOVEMENT IS BEGUN

Civic Committee, of Chamber of Commerce, Discuss Park at Greenfield—Much Interest Manifested

An important movement having as its object improvements around beautiful Greenfield Lake that will convert the grounds owned by the municipality, into a first-class city park, was begun by the civic committee of the Chamber of Commerce at meeting held yesterday at noon. The feasibility of the proposition was thoroughly discussed and it was decided to ask the aid of other civic improvements bodies in the city in a concerted effort to secure the funds to carry the matter to a successful conclusion.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. John J. Blair, the chairman, and members of the committee present were Messrs. F. E. Hashagen, Sr., Adam Empie, Clayton Giles, Jr., and J. F. Woolvin. Mr. P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Department of Streets and Wharves, was present in response to an invitation from the committee, and stated the position of the City Council in regard to this proposed improvement. He stated that this property of about 15 acres bordering on the lake had been given the city by Mr. M. S. Willard after the City Council had agreed to build a macadam road out Fourth street to this property. This work has been completed within two blocks of the lake. Councilman Moore said that the City Council would lend every aid possible in the movement to improve the property and make of it one of the finest parks in the South. The property was acquired for the sole purpose of converting it into a park and this fact is set forth in the agreement with Mr. Willard.

A campaign will be started by the civic committee in the near future for public subscriptions in order to improve the park grounds. The committee will ask the assistance of Sorosis, the Playground Association, City Council, the Civic Association and other organizations interested in civic improvement. The committee has had some correspondence with Mr. Nowland, an expert landscape artist, and he is expected to arrive in a short time to make profile and sketches of the land and prepare plans for the park. Soon after the plans have been submitted an active campaign for subscriptions will be started.

MR. W. J. CRAIG THE PURCHASER

Acquires Valuable Property at Northwest Corner Third and Market

Some weeks ago it was announced that the valuable property at the northwest corner of Third and Market streets had changed hands, but no information was given out as to the purchaser. The deed formally conveying the property from the original owners, Mr. Furney J. Gooding and wife, to the new purchaser, Mr. W. J. Craig, general passenger traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, was filed for record yesterday. The amount stipulated in the deed is $1,000 and other considerations, but it is understood that it required about $18,000 to make the deal. The property is considered ideally located for an apartment house. It has a frontage on Market street of 53 feet and on Third street 117.8 feet.

Other deeds filed for record yesterday were: Southeastern Realty Co., to Louis H. Hall, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on north side of Chesnut street, 110 feet west of 16th, 55x160 feet in size.

Geo. Schnibben and wife to W. A. Russ and wife, for $1,000 and other considerations, two acres of land in Cape Fear township, adjoining lands of Arthur Hill and others.

Geo. H. Hutaff and wife to Martin Schnibben and wife, for $100 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of Green and Wood streets.

Dr. N. A. Culbreth and wife to C. D. Weeks and R. G. Grady, for $100 and other considerations, lot on southwest corner of Second and Harnett streets, 66x122 feet in size.

Southeastern Realty Co., to Mary O. Borden, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on northeast corner of 15th and Chesnut streets, 55x150 feet in size.

Edgar Taylor to Hattie B. Taylor, for $10 and other considerations, lot on east side of Front street, 66 feet south of Nun, 66x119 feet in size.

WARREN'S STEAM BAKERY

Arousing Much Interest With Their Monthly Racer Contests

Much interest is being manifested by the small boys of Wilmington in the prize contests that are being pulled off by Warren's Steam Bakery, under the management of its capable manager, Mr. Fred Russ. At the end of each month, two high-grade Ben Hur Racers are given to the two contestants turning in the largest number of labels from Warren's bread, and much rivalry is brought about among the different contestants in their label collecting races. The third monthly contest is now on and at the end of the month two more boys will be made happy with bright new racers.

Made in a strictly sanitary bakery from only pure food products, Warren's bread is known as the most wholesome that is made anywhere and that "want more" taste that it possesses is rapidly bringing it to the front in the Wilmington bread line. The large patronage already enjoyed by Warren's is being given an additional boost through the racer contests, which will continue every month for the next six months.

SIXTH DISTRICT ODD FELLOWS

Convention Held Yesterday and Last Evening at Wallace—Meets Next At Vineland, N. C.—L. W. Moore, President

Returning on the early morning train today from Wallace, N. C., were a large number of prominent Odd Fellows from this and adjoining counties who yesterday and last evening attended the semi-annual convention of the Odd Fellows of the Sixth district with Goodwill Lodge No. 192, of Wallace.

They speak in highest terms of the hospitality of Wallace and the Odd Fellows of that thriving little city. The convention was well attended and the programme was carried out in delightful manner. Reports from all the lodges in the district showed the work in good shape and Odd Fellowship growing in a marked degree. The preliminaries were carried out in most pleasing manner, after which the regular order of discussion was taken up.

Past Grand W. L. Smith, in behalf of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, of Wilmington, discussed with edification the query, "Have Our District Conventions Been of Benefit to The Order in Their District?" The question was, of course, treated from the affirmative viewpoint.

"Practical Fraternity" was the subject of an altogether able address by Rev. J. E. L. Winecoff, of Columbus Lodge No. 27.

"How the Principles of Odd Fellowship and the Education of Our Orphans Benefit the Country at Large" was the subject assigned to Atlantic Lodge No. 43, of Southport, and the question was ably handled by Secretary M. C. Guthrie, of the convention.

"The Most Practical Means of Increasing Lodge Attendance" was the subject for discussion by Clinton Lodge No. 124, and the response was by Rev. J. L. Everton.

"How Best to Make Members Feel at Home While Visiting Our Lodge" was discussed for Wilmington Lodge No. 139, by Mr. T. G. Landen, while the response for Hanover Lodge No. 145, of Wilmington, on "The Value of Unison in Tea and Lodge Work" was well handled by Mr. C. L. Johnson.

Goodwill Lodge No. 192 was well represented in an address by Past Grand J. E. Lamb on "The Advantage or Disadvantage to the Order by Lodges Working Under the Club Plan."

"Our Orphans' Home" was well discussed by Mr. J. M. Loftin, of Warsaw Lodge No. 203.

"What Makes Better Members? The man who talks a lot and does little or the man who says little but is always on hand and willing to sacrifice something for the Lodge" was the theme assigned to Burgaw Lodge No. 143 and this was most ably handled by Representative L. F. Johnson.

A special feature was an address on the Orphans' Home and paper by Mr. E. M. Davis, of Goldsboro, a special representative who came in place of the Grand Secretary.

It was decided to hold the next convention in April at Vineland, N. C., officers for the ensuing term being elected, as follows:

President—L. W. Moore, of Wilmington.

Vice President—J. T. Best, of Vineland.

Secretary—M. C. Guthrie, of South port.

Treasurer—R. L. Murray, of Burgaw.

Marshall—J. E. Lamb, of Wallace.

Sentinel—J. B. Cox, of Warsaw.

In addition to the number of Wilmington Odd Fellows who attended the convention there were in the city for the night many members from other lodges in this vicinity who will leave for their homes today.

MARKET STREET PROPERTY

Desirable Stores Sold Through Real Estate Agency of Mr. Reilly

Through the real estate agency of Mr. James Owen Reilly there was consummated yesterday the sale of the two valuable stores at Nos. 213 and 215 Market street. The property is 50 feet front and runs into the block 132 feet, being situated nearly in the middle of the block on Market, between Second and Third streets. The sale was from the estate of the late C. C. Parker to Mr. C. D. Gilbert, the well-known produce commission merchant, who will occupy one or both the stores ultimately. The consideration is understood to have been approximately $13,500 though the figures were not given out.

Regular Meeting This Morning.

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this morning. It was said at the City Hall yesterday that there is no business of special importance scheduled for consideration this morning. The incinerator proposition will probably be considered again. Members of Council were to have had a conference on the incinerator matter yesterday morning, but several members could not be present. Geo. B. Elliott, Esq., assistant general counsel of the Atlantic Coast Line, was present and discussed informally with members of Council and Assistant City Attorney Peschau the proposed new ordinances relative to the operation of trains within the city limits. Mr. Elliott was given a copy of the ordinances and was asked to submit to Council any suggestions he might desire to make.

Buys Dwelling and Store.

Mr. C. R. Pope yesterday purchased from Mr. Sol. J. Sternberger, through the live real estate agency of Messrs. Wilder & Metts, the store and dwelling on the northeast corner of Seventh and Chesnut streets, the consideration being in the neighborhood of $8,000. The property is 66x72 feet in size. The deal was engineered by Mr. S. R. Adams, of the firm of Wilder & Metts, who is one of the "livest wires" in the real estate field in the city.

MRS. LILLIAN SKINNER DEAD.

Wife of Capt. Wm. W. Skinner Died Yesterday Morning—Funeral.

Many friends were pained and saddened yesterday to learn of the death of Mrs. Lillian Skinner, wife of Capt. Wm. W. Skinner, which occurred at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Salling, on the Castle Haynes road, a short distance from the city. Mrs. Skinner had been ill for some years and her death did not come unexpectedly.

Mrs. Skinner was born in Fayetteville and was 55 years old. She was a daughter of General Draughon and was twice married. Her first marriage was to Mr. Gary Williams, of Fayetteville, and to this union three children were born, only one of whom, Mrs. Larry Bowman, of Mount Airy, survives. Her second husband, Capt. Wm. W. Skinner, of Wilmington, and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Salling and Mrs. Walter Mathis, also survive and were with her during her last illness. Mrs. Skinner was a woman of genial manner, made a most devoted wife and mother and was happy in the devotion of her family.

For many years she was a member of the Episcopal church, first in Fayetteville and during the last 10 or 12 years her membership has been with the Church of the Good Shepherd, of this city, to which she was very faithful, when her health permitted.

The funeral was held at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Church of the Good Shepherd, conducted by the rector, Rev. Thos. P. Noe. The interment was in Oakdale cemetry. The pall-bearers were Messrs. C. S. Smith, W. E. Eason, W. R. Windley, W. A. Hundley, A. R. Chadwick, J. A. M. McDougall.

BIDS FOR Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

Three Contractors Submitted Proposals to Erect the Structure.

Bids for the erection of the proposed new building of the Y. M. C. A. on the lot next east of the Colonial Hotel, on Market street, were opened by the building committee in the temporary offices of the association, in the Odd Fellows' Building, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The award of the contract will not be made until after the committee has had a conference with Mr. Shattuck, the architect, who is expected to arrive tomorrow. Ex-Mayor Wm. E. Springer is chairman of the building committee.

Three bids were received for the general construction of the building, these being submitted by Boyle & Robertson, which firm is now erecting the handsome new building here for the Coast Line; Rhodes & Underwood, of this city, and King Lumber Co., Charlottesville, Va.

W. R. Dosher & Co., and Mr. H. E. Longley, of this city, submitted bids for plumbing, and Mr. J. W. Blake a bid for the electrical wiring. The bid of Boyle & Robertson was the lowest, being under $85,000. It is said that the bid of King Lumber Co. was only $300 higher. The bid of Rhodes & Underwood was over $90,000. As stated, Mr. Shattuck is expected to meet the building committee tomorrow and go over the bids in detail.

Officer George Exonerated.

Plainclothesman Leon George, of the local police department, was tried before Justice King yesterday morning on a peace warrant sworn out by Mr. Will Yopp. After hearing the evidence the magistrate declined to place the officer under a bond to keep the peace and dismissed the case. The action against the officer was the outcome of the trouble between Officer George and Mr. J. D. Sidbury, at the livery stable on Dock street a few days ago. W. P. Gafford, Esq., represented the prosecution, while City Attorney Herbert McClammy and Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau represented the defendant. The attorneys for the defendant submitted the case without argument, but Mr. Gafford spoke for a few minutes.

Funeral of Mrs. Burns.

The funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Burns, whose death occurred Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home on Kidder street, between Front and Second, will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Death of Little Daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Little, of No. 7 Delgado, will have the sympathy of a great many friends in the death of their infant daughter, which occurred at the family home yesterday morning. The little one was 22 months old. The funeral will be held today.

BABY'S MURDER DISCLOSED.

Mrs. Chas. Merriman's Delirious Utterances Cause Husband's Arrest.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 12.—Through delirious utterances of Mrs. Charles C. Merriam, who is ill at a local hospital, the alleged murder of her infant child was disclosed today. The woman's husband, arrested in connection with the death of the infant, is said by the police to have made a signed confession.

Nurses attending Mrs. Merriam became suspicious after the woman, while delirious, described the alleged killing of her baby by her husband. According to the woman's statements death was caused by asphyxiation. The nurses notified the authorities and an investigation was made.

At the Merriam home detectives found the body of the baby, badly decomposed and buried in lime in an outhouse.

Charles Merriam, a carpenter, was arrested. According to the police, he made a signed confession in which he asserts that the baby "was killed during the night with myself and wife in some way I am unable to explain."

Yadkin River Power Co., Sub-station At Lumberton, Tested

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 12.—The sub-station of the Yadkin River Power Co., which has been under construction for some time, has been completed and the power was turned on today to test the plant, which was found to work perfectly. Among those present were President Johnson and General Manager Carr, of the Carolina Light & Power Co., of Raleigh. Beginning next Monday morning the Lumberton and Dresden Cotton Mills will be operated by the new power.

FEDERAL COURT CONVENES

Regular Fall Term of Two Weeks Began Yesterday Morning—Court Organized and A Few Cases Disposed Of

With Judge H. G. Connor, of Wilson, presiding, the regular Fall term of United States District and Circuit Courts convened here yesterday morning. District Attorney H. F. Seawell, of Carthage, is present to look after the interests of the government, while the criminal side of the docket is being considered. There are less than 25 criminal cases on the docket for trial. Mr. S. P. Collier, the clerk, says this is the smallest number since he became clerk nine years ago.

The following were drawn and empanneled as the grand jury: Jos. H. Watters, foreman; R. W. Sellers, D. G. Hewett, C. E. Regan, D. S. Roberts, R. C. Grainger, Frank Spivey, H. A. Bain, D. W. Fussell, N. A. Wilkes, W R. Register, M. F. Ivey, J. W. Taylor, A. O. Osborne, W. M. Green, J. A. Dew, I. B. Scott and John Corbett.

Judge Connor made his usual able charge to the grand jury, pointing out to them in a clear and comprehensive manner their duties. The charge was listened to with interest not only by the jury but by all in the court room. The grand jury got busy immediately and during the day returned seven true bills of indictments.

The following were drawn as members of the petit jury: C. H. Lewis, D. O. Cameron, H. B. Williamson, J. W. Herring, D. P. Barber, W. H. Regan, W. Goodwin, J. H. Melvin, H. K. Nash, G. O. Gaylord, J. W. Cole, D. A. Smith, W. F. McLain, A. F Paddison, Justin Noel, Fred Dockery, O. M. Moffitt, J. S. Covington, D. A. Smith, D. R. Floyd and E. P. Taylor.

Introduced to the court by A. G. Ricaud, Esq., J. A. McNorton, Esq., of the firm of Scull & McNorton, was admitted to the Federal bar.

Five foreign born persons were admitted to citizenship, having complied with all the United States government laws. These were Maurice I. Davis, Isaac Shain, A. C. Mavronicholas, Alexander Angelus, Piotr Lewandowski. There was one other applicant, Alexander Kosch, but he did not appear.

There was only one jury trial during the day. The defendant in this case was Ed. Fuller, of Harnett county, charged with illicit distilling. The jury retired with the case about 3:35 and returned a verdist of guilty two hours later. Court had adjourned for the day when the jury returned so judgment was not pronounced.

A case against D. C. Simmons, alias D. C. Coleman, of Brunswick county, charged with retailing, continued from last Spring, defendant to pay $25 and was discharged. Merris Norden, of Cumberland, charged with retailing, was fined $50 and costs.

It is thought that the criminal side of the docket will be completed late this afternoon or tomorrow morning. Matters on the civil side of the docket will then be taken up.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER.

Negro Woman Given Two Years for Assault—One Whiskey Case Tried.

Only one of the several defendants arrested a few days ago for violating the prohibition law was convicted in the Recorder's court yesterday, cases against all the others, except J. J. Shepard, white, who has apparently skipped out, having been nol prossed by the prosecuting attorney as he did not feel that the evidence was sufficient to go to trial. The defendant convicted was Joe Smith, colored, and he was sentenced to three months on the roads. There were two witnesses in his case, while in the cases against Chas. Wiley and Paul Montague, colored, which were nol prossed, there was only one witness. Smith was represented by B. G. Empie, Esq.

Robt. Brown, colored, was convicted of a charge of assault on a female and was sentenced to six months on the county roads. He gave notice of an appeal.

Mary Flowers, colored, drew the long term of the session, receiving a sentence of two years on the county farm, the maximum penalty, for assault with deadly weapon upon Hattie Jones, colored, whom she cut seriously with a knife a few weeks ago. At one time it was not thought that the wounded woman would recover.

Lizzie Shipman, colored, was fined $10 and costs for assault with deadly weapon. A case against Mr. N. E. Gallagher, charged with obstructing a street with brick, was continued until Saturday. Joe Cogdell, colored, was assessed $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Henry Anderson, colored, was found not guilty of an assault on a female. Nol pros with leave was taken in a case against Willie Fortune alias Parsley, charged with assault on a female. A case against Jim Pollock, colored, charged with assault with a knife on Walter McNeil, was ordered off the docket. The witnesses could not be found and besides the case is over two years old.

A consent judgment was signed in a civil action entitled John H. Nigget, Jr., against Geo. O. Gaylord, whereby the plaintiff is allowed $175 for all the claim he might have in or to the parcel of land that constituted the subject matter of the action. W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., represented the defendant and Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff.

Funeral of Mr. King

The funeral of Mr. Jonathan W. King, who died Monday afternoon, was held at 1 o'clock yesterday from the residence, No. 121 South Eighth street, conducted by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, assistant to the pastor of the First Presbyterian church. There were present a number of relatives and friends. The body was taken on the afternoon Newbern train to Topsail Sound for interment. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. N. Bowden, R. A. Cromwell, J. H. Flake, Judson George.

HADLEY STARTS G. O. P. REFORM.

Progressive Republicans Would Reorganize Their Party.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 11.—An important political conference touching the future of the Republican party, was held here last night between Gov. Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, and Senators Cummins and Kenyon, of Iowa.

The conference was preliminary, it was said, to an effort which the Progressive Republicans are making to get control of the old Republican organization. Those Progressive Republicans who declined to side with Col. Roosevelt and his new party say they should be the ones to reorganize the Republican party.

In the plans which were discussed at the conference it is taken for granted that the colonel has already eliminated himself from the old party and proposes to continue with his new organization in 1916.

It was arranged that the ideas evolved at the meeting here should be submitted to such Progressives as Senators LaFollette and Borah, Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, and others, and if these men all agree to call a meeting of Progressive Republican leaders from every State in the Union in Chicago in the near future.

HER CONDITION QUITE CRITICAL

Suffered from Terrible Train of Symptoms—Thinks Fatal Outcome Was Avoided by Timely Use of Cardui.

Columbia, S. C.—In a letter from this city, Miss Carrie Meetze says: "I was a perfect wreck, from sickness. I had pains in my right side, weak fainting spells, dizziness, then numb and cold feelings.

At times my feet were so swollen I could not walk a step.

I also had backache, headache, was nervous, appetite good at times, more often not, and my kidneys troubled me.

A friend advised me to give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. I did so and from the very first it helped me.

At the end of two months, the swelling in my feet had gone down and I was relieved from all the pains.

I continued taking Cardui and now I do almost all my housework.

I am willing for you to publish what I write, for the good of other women, for I am sure that Cardui saved me from the grave."

The symptoms described in the above letter are proof that this lady was suffering from womanly trouble, and her cure shows that she took the right medicine for her trouble, namely: Cardui, the woman's tonic.

If you suffer as she did, do as she did, take Cardui, and it will surely do for you what it did for her. Why not?

SIDNA FIRED FIRST SHOT?

First Bullets Come From Near Him, Witness Testifies

Wytheville, Va., Nov. 12. — That the first shots fired in the Hillsville Court House tragedy came from that corner of the room in which Claude and Sidna Allen were standing, was the testimony of witnesses examined today in the trial of Sidna Allen, for the murder of Judge Thornton L. Massie. Former Judge D. W. Bolan, the first witness, said he saw both the defendant and his nephew, who already has been sentenced to death for his part in the Carroll county tragedy, with revolvers in hand firing in the direction of Judge Massie.

W. D. Tompkins, a Hillsville attorney, who was the other witness, saw the same thing and also saw Victor Allen and one of the Edwards boys advancing toward the court officers from the rear of the room with pistols levelled. He was not sure which of the Edwards boys it was.

Only two witnesses were examined, a large part of the day being consumed with the opening statements of counsel, which indicated that the prosecution and defense would be along about the same lines as in previous trials growing out of the Hillsville tragedy.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 12.—The case of commonwealth vs. Wellford was partly argued in the State Supreme Court by Attorney General Williams for the State and Caperton Braxton for Wellford and continued until tomorrow.

MISS EMMA LOUISE M'LEAN BRIDE OF MR. E. L. POTTER

Of interest to many friends in this city was the marriage at 6 o'clock last evening of Mr. Elisha L. Potter, of Wilmington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Potter, of Vineland, and Miss Emma Louise McLean, daughter of Mrs. D. P. McLean, which took place at the home of the bride, No. 512 Red Cross street. There were present only members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. Rev. Father C. Dennen, rector of St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, performed the ceremony.

Accompanied by a party of friends Mr. and Mrs. Potter went by automobile to Castle Haynes, where they took the evening train for a trip to Cuba and points in Florida. They expect to return in about two weeks and will be at home at No. 414 Chesnut street. Mr. Potter is chief clerk in the statistical department in the office of the Auditor of Freights Receipts of the A. C. L., and is a very popular man. His bride is a most attractive young lady and has a wide circle of friends.

DELIGHTFUL AUTUMN PARTY GIVEN LAST NIGHT.

Miss Anna C. Tiencken delightfully entertained last night at an Autumn party at her home, No. 404 Castle street, in honor of Miss Katherine Gieschen and Mr. Fred Banck, whose marriage takes place next Wednesday.

The rooms were decorated to represent Autumn, being a bower of Autumn leaves and bamboo. Suspended here and there were china cupids with collapsible wings. In the middle room punch was served amid a bower of Autumn leaves by little Misses Loretta Miller and Ernestine Strunck. The dining room was profusely decorated with flowers and Autumn leaves. The table was decorated with flowers, Autumn leaves and cupids, while refreshments were served on unique sets of plates, table cloths, doilies and napkins to match, same bearing an Autumn design. Large garlands of red, green and yellow were suspended above the tables. Just above the bridal couple was suspended a large china cupid bearing the wedding ring and proclaiming the gladness with a small gold trumpet. Favors consisting of gift wishbones and small musical instruments filled with rice were presented each guest.

The evening was pleasantly passed by the party in the solving of two contests, prepared by the hostess, these also pertaining to Autumn.

Those present were Miss Katherine Gieschen, Mr. Fred Banck, honor guests; Miss Augusta Gieschen, C. S. Southerland; Miss Gesine Mohr, Mr. C. J. Fick; Miss Katherine Mohr, Mr. Henry Goldberg; Miss Josie Schulken, Mr. Will Ortman; Miss Carlotta Muegge, Mr. Fred Duls; Miss Louise Vollers, Mr. David Struthers; Miss Lucile Polvogt, Mr. J. G. SENATORSHIP MUST WAIT

Deneen Will Not Call Special Session Of Illinois Legislature

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 12.—There will be no special session of the Forty-seventh General Assembly of Illinois to apportion the State and elect a United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of William Lorimer.

Governor Deneen tonight declared that, acting upon an opinion by the Attorney General that the members of the last Legislature would not be qualified to elect a United States Senator, no special session would be called.

With the membership of the two houses of the new Legislature nearly equally divided between Democrats and Republicans, and with the Progressive party holding the balance of power, the task of electing two Senators promises to prove interesting. Besides a Senator to fill out the unexpired Lorimer term, a successor to United States Senator Shelby M. Cullen is to be chosen.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

..Theatrical..

Henry W. Savage's farce comedy success, "Excuse Me," was presented at the Academy of Music last night to a large and well pleased audience. The production has been referred to as a Pullman carnival in three sections. There are many funny situations and the theatregoers are kept in constant laughter from the rise of the curtain in the first act until the fall in the third. The production is in the hands of a capable and well balanced cast.

Baby Mine.

Margaret Mayo's hilariously funny comedy, "Baby Mine," comes to the Academy for matinee and night Saturday under the direction of William A. Brady, Ltd. It has a record of eight weeks at the Majestic Theatre, Boston; one solid year at Daly's Theatre, New York; it is now in its second year in London, at the Criterion Theatre, and arrangements are being made for early production in Paris, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg, Australia, South America and Japan. From the very first rise of the curtain the fun is said to begin, and in its two hours or more it does some wonderful things with plots and situations, and fairly twinkles like a miniature firmament. If you have a sweetheart, take her to see "Baby Mine," she will like you much better after she has laughed for an entire evening. She will say to herself: "That young man has the sense to appreciate a good play, and to realize that it is good to laugh. I think he is the right kind of a man to make me happy." In the company to be seen here are such well-known players as Benedict MacQuarrie, John J. McCabe, Richard Collins, F. O. Benson, Geo. H. Harris, Hanon Welch, Eda von Beulow, May Feud and Evelyn May.

The matinee prices will be of the popular type. The lower floor will be 75 cents, and the balcony 50 cents. Children will be admitted anywhere for 25 cents.

At the Grand.

"I Want My Man", the successor to "Honey Man", will be the big song hit that Mr. Leonard Chick will introduce for the delight of patrons of the Grand Theatre today. This song is now being featured by Anna Chandler, New York's greatest vaudeville star, and it is positively the latest out. Everybody should hear Mr. Chick sing it today.

In the moveys there are two big feature films and a third equally as good but not featured. One of the features is a Kalem, "The Mystery of Grandfather's Clock." There is a pretty little love story in this and also the story of a missing deed to valuable property that is hidden away in the old clock. The story is well and beautifully told and will prove a winner with the crowds at the Grand.

But of all the feature pictures today one of the greatest will be "The Dynamiters," a Selig, and the story of love, jealousy, and wrong un-righted. Strong in dramatic situations, tense in interest and appealing to the interest with a subtle charm, this picture will be one of the best ever seen at the Grand.

All pictures at the Grand are with full orchestral accompaniment and the realistic effects are something simply fine and add one hundred-fold to the pleasure and interest of the spectator.

The Grand is centrally located, the price is always small and right there for the month the Grand is excelled by no moving picture or vaudeville house in the South.

At the Bijou.

The Bijou has certainly got the amusement-lovers of Wilmington going these days. This both from a trite and a literal standpoint and it adds much to the general excitement at the popular theatre. Yesterday, in spite of heavy opposition, the Bijou was one of the centers of atraction and did big business last night, as well as doing a rushing business yesterday afternoon, the ladies and children flocking there, as usual. The big bill was, of course, immensely enjoyed, and many high compliments paid the clever management. The solid comfort ways of the Bijou were naturally highly praised.

Today's bill will be one that will tickle all, and will serve up what is most novel as well as most delightful. It will be headed by a great dramatic film, "The Rivals", which tells a virile story of the love of two young men for the same girl, the task she sets them and how they perform it. One takes an underhand advantage of the other, nearly ending in a tragedy, but repents in time to save the day and give a happy climax to the story.

A film of great dramatic intenseness and of great beauty of scenery is also on today's bill in "A Mexican Romance'." It tells of the hot-blood of the Mexicans and the scenes are all in picturesque Mexico. There is a thrill every second.

"Darby and Joan" is also a star film today and it depicts a sweet, charming story, with an air of mystery that is indeed most fascinating. It is a tale of dear Old England.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 12.—David DeLaFuente, formerly General Pascual Orozco's chief of staff, was arrested here tonight by United States authorities and is confined in the guard house at Fort Sam Houston. It is understood the charge against DeLaFuente is violation of the neutrality laws, although all persons connected with the arrest are reticent concerning it.

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

—Rev. Andrew J. Howell will conduct the A. C. L. shop meeting today at noon in place of Rev. W. E. Cox, who was called out of the city. The meetings are held under the auspices of the A. C. L.

—W. E. Charles, colored, was tried before Justice King yesterday afternoon on a c harge of embezzlement, preferred by J. R. Coel, also colored. The magistrate held that the evidence did not show probable cause and dismissed the case.

—Chief Engineer H. U. Butler, of the revenue cutter Seminole, left yesterday afternoon for Savannah, being transferred to the revenue cutter Yamacraw stationed at that port. He will be succeeded on the Seminole by Lieut. of Engineers Adams.

—Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in Justice Harriss' court yesterday in a case against Mrs. Sam Springer, charged with violating the automobile speed laws on th turnpike Monday afternoon. The warrant was issued at the instance of Sheriff Cowan.

—Sheriff S. P. Cowan has been advised by Sheriff J. M. Clark, of Bladen county, that Henry Griffin, colored, now serving a 30-day sentence on the roads in this county, is wanted in Bladen as soon as he has finished his term in New Hanover. The negro is wanted there for skipping his board bill. Griffin's time on the roads here expires December 9th.

—Chief of Police Fowler received a telegram yesterday from the chief of police of Petersburg, Va., stating that C. T. Powell, a white man, who escaped from the county farm recently had been arrested there. The telegram was turned over to the county authorities. It is not likely that Powell will be sent for. He was sentenced from Superior Court some months ago to the farm for 12 months without work on account of his physical condition. The charge against him was selling whiskey.

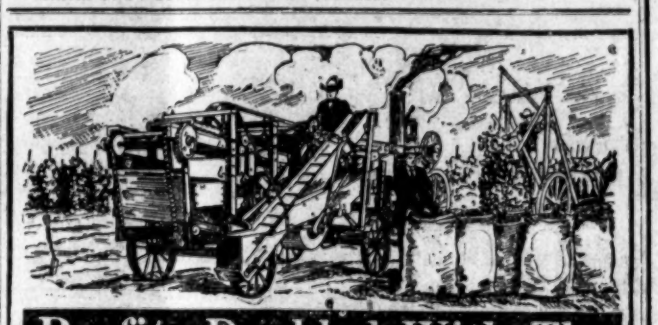
Delegates From Several States Attend 13th Biennial Convention

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12.—Delegates from several States attended the opening here tonight of the 13th biennial convention of the United Synod of the Lutheran Church in the South. Dr. J. A. Morehead, Salem, Va., president of the synod, delivered the synodical sermon.



Profits Doubled With The Benthall Peanut Picker!

If you grow peanuts and do not use a Benthall Peanut Picker, you actually lose money by not owning one.

The Benthall makes peanut growing doubly profitable.

The wages you pay—the losses from delays in not getting your crop early to market—the losses from birds and stealing—cost you more than a machine.

If you own a Benthall, you and your boys can do the work of a hundred hands, and do it better. You send your crop to market early—secure highest prices. You stop the theft of your crop.

Growers now see that hand picking is far too costly.

The folly of attemping to "thresh" them has been plainly shown.

For machines that "thresh" them destroy profits.

They crack the nuts—and cracked nuts will not keep.

They grind the vines to smithereens—and these vines are the equal of alfalfa for feed—worth from $12 to $20 per ton.

Contrast such machines with the Benthall.

The vines are fed to the Benthall just as grain to the treshing machine.

The peanuts are pulled off the vine without injury to the shell. The machine picks as delicately as human fingers—hundreds of times more rapidly.

Many buyers give preference to Benthall picked nuts.

The vines are saved in perfect condition for hay.

The recleaning and bagging attachment makes it unnecessary to run the peanuts over for seed the second time.

This is the picker of proved worth—proved out in the peanut fields of Virginia.

Either Spanish or Virginia varieties are picked equally as well.

It is mounted—ready to hitch—as you would a farm wagon. You can easily move it from place to place.

There are models suited for horse or engine power—machines that are made interchangeable.

Every year sees more farmers using the Benthall. It has supplanted all other methods in many sections. And the demand this year promises to be greater than we can supply.

THE MACHINE THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF.

If you don't want to let profits slip thru your fingers—if you want to make money growing peanuts, write us for our folder "How the Benthall Pays For Itself." Sent Free upon request.

COTTON NERVOUS BUT HIGHER

Fluctuations Were Very Erratic, But the Tendency Seemed to be Upward—Close 15 to 20 Points Net Higher.

New York, Nov. 12.—The cotton market showed great nervousness, following yesterday's big break, and fluctuations were extremely erratic. Broadly speaking, however, the tendency seemed to be upward, and the close was firm at a net gain of from 15 to 20 points. The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 5 points, and prices quickly sold 13 to 16 points net higher on reassuring political news from Europe, somewhat better cables than expected, realizing by yesterday's sellers for a turn, and bull support. This early advance attracted a renewal of heavy outside liquidation or realizing, however, which suggested that the confidence of scattering holders had been severely shaken by the sensational break of yesterday afternoon and during the middle of the morning prices sold 3 or 4 points under the closing prices of last night, representing a break of some 17 or 18 points from the early high level. Trade buying and continued bull support checked the decline, and as soon as the market began to steady, scattering bulls seemed to regain their confidence, owing to numerous spot advices from the South. At any rate, prices moved upward even more rapidly than they had previously declined and during the early afternoon sold 24 to 27 points net higher, or about 30 points up from the low level of the morning. Later spot advices were somewhat less favorable and a renewal of scattering liquidation caused another slump of 16 to 17 points during the middle of the afternoon, but prices rallied again in the late trading, and were finally within eight or nine points of the best. Private cables from Liverpool reported a much more optimistic feeling with reference both to English politics and to the situation in the near East, and it was reported that both England and the continent were heavy buyers in the local market during the morning. The South was a seller here, early, but appeared to be buying on the advance during the middle of the day, although later local sentiment was somewhat confused by claims of a less active spot demand.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 12.20; middling gulf, 12.45; no sales.

Prices Fell Away Rapidly in Stock Market, But Most Losses Were Recovered and Some Gains Made Before Close.

New York, Nov. 12.—The feature of today's stock market was a vicious drive against quoted values which occurred in the middle of the session. Prices fell away rapidly and for a time the list showed little more than a semblance of support. Before the end of the day, however, most losses were fully recovered, with a good average of material gains. While the selling was at its height, various disquieting rumors were current. These included domestic and political developments and the possible result of the findings of the railway arbitration board in the matter of demands of the Eastern engineers, to be made known later in the week. News from London, Paris and Berlin was all of a character to indicate relaxation in the tension created by the war in Southeastern Europe.

Judging from the resiliency manifested by the market on its rebound, it is altogether probable that the early movement constituted little more than a concerted attack by a formidable professional faction, whose recent operations have indicated a pronounced tendency towards the bear side. Call money was something of a factor, the rate ranging from 6½ to 6½ per cent., with most loans made midway.

Bonds were irregular, later, making some recovery. Total sales, par value, were $1,796,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, today, 725,900 shares.

NORTH AND SOUTH JOIN IN TRIBUTE

it that prompted North and South to join in healing wounds caused by the war.

"Let this monument," he said, "be emblematic of our nation's unity of aim and purpose. Standing on the line that once separated the two unfriendly sections, it becomes a bond of unity, and breathing the spirit of him who laid the foundations of a universal brotherhood, it will be to the country a promise of never-ending good will."

About the cornerstone as it was lowered into place stood Colonel Herbert, Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, first vice president of the Daughters of the Confederacy; Corporal Tanner and Miss Mary Lee, daughter of the Southern commander-in-chief, Robert E. Lee.

Taft Welcomes Daughters

A greater opportunity to give the South a "feeling of ownership" in the government will be given the Woodrow Wilson administration than was accorded the present Republican regime, President Taft told the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the opening session of their annual convention here.

The President declared that "circumstances have rendered it more difficult for a Republican administration than for a Democratic one to give our Southern brothers and sisters the feeling of close relationship and ownership in the Government of the United States" activitiy of Southerners in official life consequent to Democratic control of the government, he said, would give the South a feeling of partnership in the conduct of the country's affairs that would do much towards eliminating sectional feeling.

A great crowd of the Daughters gathered at the opening "welcome session" of the convention to hear the President. Mrs. Marion Butler, president of the District of Columbia, Division of the Daughters, presided, and delivered the opening address of welcome. Cuno H. Rudolph, president of the district commission, welcomed the Daughters on behalf of the city, and the President followed.

President Taft said the occasion that brought the Daughters together was not the mourning at the bier of a lost cause, but that they met to celebrate the heroism, courage and sacrifice of the men of the South. He declared North and South alike should rejoice in the "common heritage of courage" left by the war, and that while the greater horrors of the war which visited the South made it more difficult for the feeling of hostility to die out there than in the North, the sectional line was at last entirely disappearing.

A thousand Southern women, members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, journeyed to Arlington National cemetery today to lay the cornerstone of a monument to the Confederate soldiers buried there. The monument, looming beside the great stone shafts erected to the memory of Union soldiers, is designed as a lasting evidence that the North and the South are permanently reunited.

For the first time since its organization, 19 years ago, the United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold its convention in another than a Southern city, when the sessions of the annual meeting begin here tonight. The organization determined to meet in Washington that the daughters might conduct the laying of the cornerstone of the new monument, which has been financed largely by that organization.

Col. Herbert A. Hilary, Secretary of the Navy under President Cleveland, was chosen as master of ceremonies for the laying of the cornerstone. He is head of the committee in charge of the erection of the monument. The orator of the day was William Jennings Bryan. On the platform also stood the officers of the Daughters and Mrs. Marion Butler, who had charge of the programme for the cornerstone laying ceremonies and the convention.

The monument will stand in the center of the Confederate section of the cemetery, among the graves of the Confederate soldiers brought there from the little out-of-the-way graveyards and prison cemeteries throughout the country. The bodies brought under an act of Congress passed some years ago, setting aside a plot in Arlington for the burial of Confederate soldiers. When President Taft was Secretary of War he granted to the District of Columbia branch of the United Daughters of the Confederacy permission to erect the monument to the Confederate dead. Later the aid of the entire organization throughout the South was enlisted.

In a metal box placed in the cornerstone will rest a copy of the act of Congress authorizing the burial of the Confederate dead in Arlington, a copy of Secretary of War Taft's letter authorizing the raising of the monument, and tiny silk replicas of the State flags of the various Southern States, and one bearing the Stars and Stripes for the District of Columbia. The War Department co-operated with the Daughters in making arrangements for the laying of the cornerstone. The 15th Cavalry band furnished the music for the programme.

Tomorrow morning the Daughters will hold their first business session. Cardinal Gibbons will open the convention with a prayer. Reports from the National officers and various committees will be received at the various business sessions which will be held every morning and afternoon until Saturday. Tomorrow afternoon a memorial service for the dead of the organization will be held.

A wealth of social functions have been planned for the women of the South during their stay in Washington, and several of the business sessions of the convention will be adjourned for social affairs.

On Wednesday evening a general reception by the officers of the organization to the delegates will be held. Thursday afternoon President Taft and Mrs. Taft will receive the delegates at the White House in the East room, which will be especially decorated for the occasion. Following the White House reception a score of private teas will be given for the Daughters, and the Society of Colonial Dames will hold a reception for the visiting Southern women.

On Friday the Daughters will go by special train to Annapolis to visit the Naval Academy. They will be conducted over the naval academy grounds, and will be received by Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland, and the Maryland Division of the United Daughters. Returning to Washington the Daughters will hold a reception for the Confederate Veterans of the city at the Confederate memorial home.

Saturday the Mississippi division will hold a reception at Memorial Hall. Saturday afternoon the Daughters will visit the home of George Washington at Mount Vernon and go to Alexandria to attend a reception by the Virginia Daughters of the Confederacy.

Sunday the Daughters will again go to Alexandria to attend a special service at Christ Church, at one time the worshipping place of George Washington. Prior to the Civil War, Robert E. Lee, the Confederate commander, attended services there.

During the business sessions of the convention the Daughters will take up the educational work in the South, which has become a large part of the organization's activities. The work of caring for the aging Confederate veterans, for which the society was originally formed, has been largely accomplished through the establishment of Confederate veterans homes throughout the South. At present the Daughters are educating the children and grandchildren of Southern veterans through scholarships maintained in various colleges North and South.

WAKE FOREST NEWS NOTES

Democratic Victory Celebrated—Annual Banquet—Student Expelled

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wake Forest College, Nov. 12.—Nearly every student in college has had his part in the celebration of the Wilson and Marshall victory as well as the whole Democratic ticket throughout the Nation, since the news was flashed across the wires to this place. All are proud of the victory that the people have won.

Dr. R. S. MacArthur has just closed one of the finest courses of lectures that has ever been delivered at Wake Forest College. He deliverd five lecturs while here, and each time found a full house to hear what he might choose to lecture on. His last lecture on "The Empire of Russia," was delivered in the most interesting manner, and it seemed to be the climax of his lectures.

The annual banquet of the Baraca Class was given last Friday night, and those who were present said that it was the most enjoyed banquet that they had ever attended. The Senior class of Oxford College attended the reception, and a number of young ladies were here from other places. Prof. J. H. Highsmith, the Baraca teacher, made a short talk at the opening. He then called on Dr. Gorrell, the Sunday School superintendent, to make a short address. He was followed by Rev. W. R. Johnson and Dr. Hubert Poteat, who made some very appropriate remarks. The Wake Forest Glee Club and quartette then gave a few pieces of music after which refreshments were served. It was an enjoyable occasion, and one that was beneficial to all who took part in it.

The preliminary trial of Gordon H. Rhodes, the Freshman who shot Frank Powers several days ago was had the latter part of the week. His attorney waived all examination and asked that it be sent up to the higher court to be disposed of. Nothing new came out of the trial except that another student was implicated in the affair. The Senate committee investigated the matter immediately, and as a result, Mr. Tom Holding, a student, whose home is in the village, was expelled from college. The evidence of the two young men, who were first expelled tended to show that young Rhodes was justifiable, without a doubt, in shooting Powers. Powers at this time is getting along fine in the hospital, and there seems to be no fear as to his getting well now.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

State Has Every Reason to be Thankful This Year

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 12.—Governor W. W. Kitchin issued this evening his proclamation designating Thursday, November 28th, as Thanksgiving Day, declaring that "during the year which is closed the people of this State have enjoyed generous harvests and great progress and prosperity. On the day above designated let them cease from their labors and have the opportunity to gather in their accustomed places of worship to return thanks to Almighty God for His manifold blessings. Let them charitably remember the poor and the needy."

Indianapolis, Nov. 12.—Thirty witnesses from the Pacific coast, it was announced today, have been subpoenaed to testify at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial concerning explosions in the Western States. These include officials who assisted in the dynamite cases at Los Angeles and men in San Francisco, Washington and Portland, Ore., who the government stated, will be called upon to testify concerning o movements, not only of James B. McNamara and Ortie E. McManigal, but also of Eugene Clancy, Olaf Tveitmoe and other labor leaders.

wealthy and prominent family, came to the front in political life only in 1900, when he took a leading part in the campaign against Clericalism. He had, however, taken great interest in politics as a student and public speaker for many years before that. At the age of 25 he became a member of the Spanish parliament, attaching himself to the advance Liberal section.

He became a member of Premier Sagastas cabinet in 1902 as Minister of Agriculture. He introduced many reforms, especially in regard to the working classes and eventually created a Department of Labor. When he was asked in February, 1910, by King Alfonso to form a ministry, the request caused a great sensation as it was the first time in the history of Spain that an advanced radical had been placed at the head of the ministry. His cabinet has since undergone many changes but he has always retained the leading place. He had much to do with the signing of the agreement between Spain and France on the question of the future of Morocco; which was recently satisfactorily settled.

The project introduced by Senor Canalejas for the separation of Church and State caused a rupture of relations between Spain and the Vatican. These have since been resumed, and the question of separation is being discussed with a view to a friendly settlement. The Spanish government, however, insists on the supremacy of the civil powers. Senor Canelajas visited New York in 1897 just before the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. It was stated at the time that his mission was to study the sentiment of the American people and of the administration regarding Cuban affairs, but it was hinted that he was entrusted with a secret diplomatic mission to offer pecuniary inducements to the Cuban leaders to stop the rebellion in Cuba. He denied the truth of the report. He was at that time editor of El Heraldo of Madrid.

GOVERNOR'S EXPENSE ACCOUNT.

Amount Expended in His Recent Senatorial Campaign—The Amounts.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 12.—The final statement of Governor Kitchin setting out his expenses in the recent Senatorial primary gives his total expenses required to be reported, including amounts in the report issued the week before the primary as $6,782. The first report showed $592 donation from friends and $5,452.23 expended and the supplementary report now given out, $246 additional donations received and $1,355 expended. The total donations to the Governor's campaign was $838, contributions named in the final report being Benehan Cameron $100; N. B. Broughton and Dr. Chas. Lee Smith, $50 each; J. L. Foutain, $25. Some notable features of the final expense account that has been paid are $100 to his manager in Mecklenburg county; $100 to Charlotte Observer; $43 to the Bladen Journal; Manager F. R. McNinch, personal expenses; $204 included in $674.25 expenses. Given as remaining unpaid are $109 to News and Observer; $67.62 to Charlotte Observer; $109 to Carolina Union Farmer; $350 to Durham Sun; $33 to Greensboro Record; $23 to Progressive Farmer; $10 to Danbury Reporter; $10 to Progress Publishing Co.; $15 to Hickory Democrat; $20 to Wilmington Dispatch; $17 to Reidsville Review.

WILL INCREASE OUTPUT

N. & W. to Expend $25,000 on Enlarging Its Roanoke Shops

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 11.—President L. E. Johnson, of the Norfolk and Western, when asked today concerning the news of large improvements being made at the Roanoke shops, gave out the following official statement in regard to the contemplated enlargements:

"It is the purpose of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company to extend the facilities of the Roanoke shops so as to increase the output of new cars to about fifty per day instead of ten per day, as are now being built. This will mean the addition of a few unimportant buildings and the purchase of some additional tools. The total expenditures for these is $250,000, and will give work to an additional number of men."

CHEERFUL NEWS.

For Feeble Old People.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectually than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthener and body-builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

A grand niece of Alexander Hamilton over eighty years of age once remarked: "Vinol is a god-send to old people. Thanks to Vinol I have a hearty appetite, sleep soundly, feel active and well. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I have ever used."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money. R. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.
